FIFTY-FIFTH YEAR No. 159 LINCOLN, NEB., THURSDAY MORNING, APRIL 4, 1957 FIVE CENTS

Saturday Postal Shutdown Looms

More Money Asked

Summerfield Sees Drastic Curtailment

From Press Dispatches

WASHINGTON — Postmaster General Arthur Summerfield told a House Appropriation subcommittee Wednesday he will be forced to suspend Saturday mail deliveries this week unless assured Congress will give him 47 million dollars soon.

Rep. Wilson (R-Ind) reported Sumerfield told the group in a closed-door hearing that operating expenses for the current fiscal year that ends June 30 had run heavier than expected. Wilson also quoted Summerfield as saying that the department would be forced to postpone leave of some employes and to suspend many purchases of equipment that had been planned.

Summerfield

Table Thumped

After a four-hour noisy table-thumping session with the post office chief and his aides, the subcommittee headed by Rep. Gray (D-Va), voted to give the department 17 million dollars—30 millions less than Summerfield requested.

Gray said this was the amount of money that Summerfield was entitled to and that as far as he was concerned, the department would have to dig up the rest from other revenue sources.

The appropriation must be approved by the full committee and both the House and Senate.

For 3-Month Period

Rep. Wilson said Summerfield told the subcommittee the extra money is needed for the final three months of the fiscal year ending June 30.

He quoted the postmaster general as saying that unless he was assured of the funds, he would have to:

1. Dicontinue city carrier delivery of all clases of mail on Saturdays.
2. Close all post offices on Saturdays and discontinue rural delivery of all classes of mail.
3. Discontinue sale of money orders.

One a Day

4. Reduce deliveries of mail in business districts of cities to one per day.
5. Embargo acceptance and delivery of all third-class mail except mercandise.
6. Suspend all annual leave of employes until after July 1.
7. Suspend purchases of uniforms until after July 1.
8. Defer purchases of sorting cases, conveyors, lightweight vehicles, garage equipment and other equipment and supply items.

Wilson said Summerfield told the committee his appropriations were running short of needs because of heavier mail volume than was anticipated, extension of service routes, and salary increases voted by Congress.

"Catastrophe" Seen

In another development, William C. Doherty, president of the National Association of Letter carriers, called the threatened curtailment of mail service "a catastrophe."

Meanwhile, Doherty called an emergency closed-door meeting of all postal employe unions for Thursday to fight the threatened action.

When news of the subcommittee's closed-door action leaked out, Chairman Cannon (D-Mo) of the full committee accused the Post Office Department of an 11th hour attempt "to sandbag us with threats."

The Forecast:

2 More Damp Days

Rain And Snow Totals Mount; City Gets 1.05

Welcome precipitation fell from the skies Wednesday and early Thursday—in the form of drizzle, rain, sleet and snow—and more moisture was predicted in the form of snow and rain through Friday.

The western part of Nebraska was buried under snows of five to 13 inches; the central part of the state received moisture in the form of rain followed by snows up to three inches, and the eastern portion of Nebraska got its precipitation in the form of rain—up to nearly two inches.

But wherever it was, in Nebraska residents said "it was nice steady moisture."

A few roads were reported icy or snow-packed by the State Safety Patrol. They included U. S. 6 and 34 from Minden to Kenesaw Jct., State 2 from Broken Bow to Mullen, State 11 from North Loup to Ord, roads near St. Paul, and highways in the Kearney, Grand Island and Central City areas.

In the central part of the state a "steady" snow fell from late afternoon to early Thursday in the Hayes Center, Holdrege and Grand Island areas.

Further east drizzle and rain fell in the Lincoln, York and Norfolk areas.

Lincoln's light rain had changed to heavy, wet snow by early Thursday. The moisture total for the two days of precipitation totaled an unofficial 1.05 by early Thursday.

Norfolk reported .22 of rain by late Wednesday, with the rain changing to light and moderate snowfall by early Thursday. Snow at Valentine measured three inches late Wednesday.

A heavy rain fell at Nebraska City and Crete from afternoon into early Thursday.

13 Inches of New Snow

In the western part of the state 13 inches of new snow was reported at Alliance, Sidney had eight inches, Chadron, nine, Harrison seven inches and Imperial five inches.

North Platte had three inches of snow in 40 minutes late Wednesday afternoon, cutting visibility to ¼ of a mile and bringing the snow depth up to seven inches.

Roads in the area were open but slushy and the Safety Patrol advised against travel because of the danger of freezing.

About a dozen small schools in the area decided to close Thursday. They included Maxwell, Maywood and Stockville.

Scottsbluff had nine inches of snow with .85 of an inch of moisture. All main highways in the area were open, but sideroads were muddy.

Precipitation reports in the western part of Nebraska included Hemingford 1.15; Sidney, .89; Chadron, .52, and Alliance, .76.

Some Dry Spots

Arnold Nordquist, state-federal crop statistician, said, "We still have some dry spots in the state" in spite of recent precipitation.

He noted the southern half, north central and western parts of the state as still below normal.

"Although the southeast already has above normal moisture, this is further increasing the supply and the build-up is still welcome," he said. "The last two years were quite short of moisture."

The recent rainfall is causing the Big Blue River to rise in Nebraska, according to the Weather Bureau, and forecasters said the river would be one-half to two-thirds of bankfull from Beatrice to Randolph, Kan., early Thursday.

Precipitation during the last two days around the state brought by snow and rain includes:

New Twisters Menace Texas And Arkansas

21 Deaths Follow Tornadoes, Mountain States Blizzard

By The Associated Press

April's violent moods spawned more tornadoes Wednesday in the Southern Plains while a spring blizzard lost its punch in the Rocky Mountain states.

The tornadoes, which struck Tuesday and Tuesday night, and the blizzard were blamed for 21 deaths, 10 of them in Dallas.

The damage mounted into the millions. Damage at Dallas alone was placed at more than $4,000,000.

New tornadoes menaced twister-jittery north Texas and Arkansas Wednesday, but most of the damage was minor.

One of them struck the little town of Cash in northeast Arkansas, but there were no injuries and damage was reported minor.

There were many unconfirmed reports of funnels being sighted near Little Rock and Searcy, both in Arkansas.

Numerous funnels were reported in Texas. Some hit the ground, but in open fields.

5 Deaths

In Oklahoma Tuesday more than a dozen tornadoes swept across the southern and eastern portions of that state, causing five deaths.

Intermittent sunshine signaled the end of a paralyzing April blizzard in Colorado and the mountain states. Pegged as the worst April storm in 41 years, it caused five deaths.

The storm began with a gentle rain and then turned to snow, dumping as much as 18 inches of snow on the foothill cities and 27 inches in the mountains.

Damage to utility lines, trees and other property was extensive. In Denver alone, city forester George Stadler estimated that more than 10,000 trees were damaged.

Power was restored to Pueblo's 100,000 resident after a day without service.

Drought

But the snow brought cheer to the High Plains areas east of the Rockies, hard hit by drought for the past few years.

While the snow was relatively light in western Kansas, the remainder of that state received substantial rains.

Rains of from two to four inches fell in eastern Oklahoma and northern Arkansas. Rains up to two inches fell in western Missouri, sending some streams to bankful levels for the first time in several years.

The Missouri River from St. Joseph, Mo., to Jefferson City, Mo., at a low level since last fall is expected to rise from four to eight feet.

Towers Toppled

DES MOINES (AP) — Gale force winds gusting to 66 miles an hour blew down two 350-foot towers of radio station KIOA here Wednesday night. There were no injuries.

Four other towers of the station's in the country southeast of Des Moines withstood the winds. The station reported it was on the air intermittently.

The Weather Bureau said the winds were localized and were not associated with any storm system in the area.

Mrs. Paul G. Law of Des Moines escaped possible death when at the last minute she decided not to accompany her husband on a trip.

A six-foot limb, blown from a tree by the winds, pierced the Law car where Mrs. Law would have been sitting. The accident occurred in Des Moines. Law was not hurt.

Woman Given Ike Aide Job

Mrs. Wheaton Is New Assistant To Hagerty

WASHINGTON (AP) — Mrs. Anne Wheaton, onetime newspaperwoman who has directed women's publicity for the Republican National Committee for 18 years, was named associate White House press secretary Wednesday.

Mrs. Wheaton

It is the first such appointment for a woman.

President Eisenhower himself, in a surprise move, made the announcement before some 1,400 women delegates at the windup session of the fifth annual Republican Women's Conference.

He said his administration had tried to bring more women into responsible posts in government, and then proceeded to name Mrs. Wheaton on the spot. He called it "another first in the White House."

The gray-haired, blue-eyed motherly-looking Mrs. Wheaton, who has had a wide variety of public relations posts with women's groups, said it all came as "a complete surprise."

She got the word just an hour and a half before from her new boss, James Hagerty, White House press secretary

'Tribute'

Her appointment was greeted with jubilation by the large gathering of GOP women at the conference.

Mrs. Wheaton said it was "a tribute to my profession and not to Mrs. Wheaton."

Mrs. Wheaton had served as personal press representative for Mrs. Eisenhower during the 1952 election campaign. The first lady, who accompanied the President to the session, joined in the applause that greeted the announcement.

A native of Utica, N.Y., Mrs. Wheaton is the daughter of the late John Williams, a Republican who served in the New York State Legislature and as New York labor commissioner under five New York governors. Her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Williams, lives in Rowe, Mass.

Mrs. Wheaton, who says she's 'over 60', takes over the post of Murray Snyder, who now is assistant secretary of defense for public affairs. Hagerty said she will start May 1.

She is divorced from Warren Wheaton, public relations and newsman.

-Treasury Budget-

No Cut In Fund Urged

Request Made By Humphrey

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Robertson (D-Va) said Wednesday Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey has asked restoration of an $8,205,000 cut made by the House in the Treasury's budget. The secretary testified earlier he was going along with the reductions.

Humphrey

Robertson is chairman of an appropriations subcommittee which handles Treasury funds. He said Humphrey had sent him a letter asking for the $8,205,000 for replacement of Coast Guard planes described as antiquated. It would be the first installment of a six-year replacement program.

Humphrey, a foremost advocate of government economy, set off quite a fiscal storm back in January by saying that if the level of government spending is not reduced over the years, there will be a depression "that will make your hair curl."

Robertson told a reporter that, as for the Coast Guard planes, he felt this program was justified but nevertheless he was inclined not to approve Humphrey's request.

Says Senate Blamed

Robertson explained he was taking this position because of the "often-repeated statements by House members that all the economies they attempt are offset by Senate increases."

Robertson said the House Appropriations Committee was well aware of the need for the planes because of Treasury testimony and because of a Coast Guard report covering the subject.

The senator said his attention had been called to the report by Rep. Gary (D-Va), chairman of House Appropriations Subcommittee which handles Treasury funds. Robertson said he interpreted Gary's forwarding of the report to the Senate as a form of "passing the buck" to the Senate to vote the money for the aircraft.

In view of this, the Virginia senator said he proposed "to leave the aircraft item for future consideration by the House."

The treasury's $713,831,000 budget for fiscal 1958 was cut $22,364,000 by the House. When Humphrey appeared before Robertson's subcommittee Feb. 28, he said he would accept the House cuts.

Robertson said he was willing to go along with all House cuts this year "which are genuine economy cuts."

COMMITTEE VOTE KILLS PASTEURIZED MILK BILL

By ROY CAMPBELL
Star Staff Writer

A 4-2 vote in the Legislature's Public Health Committee spelled defeat Wednesday of a bill to require all milk or milk products be pasteurized.

The bill, LB 547, had been heard earlier. Introducers of the measure, which received heavy opposition, were Sens. Otto Liebers of Lincoln, William Moulton of Omaha, and Fay Wood of Seward.

In other action, the committee reported out to the floor LB 171 which provides for over-payments for medical costs to four classes of recipients. These are the old age recipients, blind, disabled, and children.

All Up To Counties

Under terms of the original bill, the state and counties would have divided, 25-25, the responsibility of the matching program with the federal government. A committee amendment, though, placed the entire over-payment load on the counties and eliminated the state's participation.

The Labor and Public Welfare Committee heard and reported to the floor Wednesday enabling act for the Board of Control to place children in incorporated institutions. Previously, the Board had authority to place children only in public homes.

The committee voted 5-1 in reporting the bill to the floor of the Legislature.

In executive session, the committee in a close 4-3 vote sent to general file an amended bill dealing with damages resulting from labor strikes.

The bill, LB 502, in original form would have permitted individuals or business firms to collect treble damages in such cases from pickets or labor unions. A committee amendment, though, would allow persons picketing a business or firm the same damage recovery, but from persons or employers interfering with peaceful picketing.

Hungary Is Handed U.S. Snub

Reds Blasted For 'Stalin Terror'

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States blasted at Hungary's Red regime Wednesday for practicing "Stalinist terror" and it snubbed invitations to a Hungarian "Liberation Day" celebration.

The State Department issued a harsh statement, which summed up what it called recent efforts by Hungary's Kadar regime to suppress "all human rights and liberties."

At the same time, department officials disclosed a calculated snub aimed at the Hungarian legation here. Invitations to the legation's "Liberation Day" party Thursday were unceremoniously tossed away — without even a note being sent to apologize for being absent.

The ceremonies Thursday will mark the 12th anniversary of the Soviet Army's entry into Hungary as the forces of Nazi Germany withdrew at the end of World War II.

'Reversion'

The State Department statement said recent events in Hungary "mark a reversion to some of the worst practices of the Stalinist terror in that country." It said they "stand in ironic contrast to the celebration by Communists on April 4 of the 'liberation' of Hungary by Soviet armed forces in 1945."

These developments "will be of concern" to the United Nations special committee named last Jan. 10 to investigate the Hungarian revolution, the statement added.

The special committee is composed of representatives of Australia, Ceylon, Denmark, Tunisia and Uruguay. It has held hearings in New York, Geneva, Rome and Vienna — but the Communists in Hungary refused to permit it to meet there. Similarly, the Hungarian regime of Janos Kadar had barred a trip there by U.N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold.

Ned Sparks, Comedian, Dies At 73

VICTORVILLE, Calif. (AP)—Ned Sparks, comedian of the rasping voice and perpetual scowl, died at St. Marys Hospital of Desert Valley Wednesday night of an intestinal block. He was 73 years old. His legal name was Edward A. Sparkman.

Sparks had been ill for several months. He had been inactive in films for many years but at one time he was in great demand.

He was one of the founders of Actor's Equity and a leader in the strike of 1918. After the strike he was blackballed on Broadway and came to Hollywood to continue his career.

He was in such movie successes as "Lady For A Day" and was featured in "Imitation Of Life" starring Claudette Colbert.

He quit the films in 1948 and came to the desert. He spent the rest of his days on a ranch, but he didn't buy a home. Instead, he rented an adobe apartment by the year.

Sparks was perhaps best known to movie followings as a grouchy, dour-faced comedian with a lemon-flavored disposition who always appeared to have got up on the wrong side of the bed.

General And Wife Are Slain

French War Hero Held In Slayings

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP)—A retired Army general, who developed the C and K rations used by armed forces during World War II, and his wife were shot to death in their luxurious home in the Snell Isle residential area Wednesday night.

County police arrested a French war hero in the couple's car after a three-mile chase and held him for questioning.

Brig. Gen. Wilbur R. McReynolds, 64, was struck by five bullets from a .22 caliber pistol and his wife, Faye, 61, was shot twice in the living room of their home.

Detective Lt. Ralph H. Lee said two counts of murder would be filed Thursday against Maurice M. Chavigny, 44, of Paris, who had been a guest in the McReynolds home since last Thanksgiving.

Argument

Lee said Chavigny orally admitted the shooting and gave this account:

Chavigny and the couple had an argument. He wanted to leave and planned to buy a bicycle and a gun, ride off and kill himself.

He bought the bicycle and gun, returned to the home about 6:30 p.m., put on his United Nations uniform and told Mrs. McReynolds he was leaving.

She argued with him and he shot her. Then the general came after him and he shot McReynolds, got into the family car and drove off.

Four blocks away, Chavigny's car collided with one driven by Fred N. Webber Sr., of McLean, Va., who gave police the license number.

County traffic patrol chief Ed Silk and patrolman Joe Mucciano gave chase, fired six shots at the car and halted Chavigny, who still had the gun.

Lee said nine shots were fired in the McReynolds home. Two struck McReynolds in the chest and three in the stomach area, while Mrs. McReynolds was hit in the head and right wrist. Two other shots went wild.

Detectives Seek Logs From Lindbergh Flight

NEW YORK (INS) — A detective agency said Wednesday it has begun an international search for the two log books of Charles A. Lindbergh's historic solo flight across the Atlantic in 1927.

Lindbergh has said the logs "were taken by some member of the crowd that overran fences and guards at Le Bourget" Airport to greet him.

The detective agency said a $2,857 reward for the books has been posted by an American client who wants to give them to Lindbergh in commemoration of the 30th anniversary of his non-stop flight.

AF Contract Won After 17 Rejects

WASHINGTON (INS)—An aircraft executive said Wednesday his firm found 1,584 discrepancies in 17 air conditioners purchased from a firm that later was awarded a two and one-half million dollar Air Force contract.

Howard G. Golem, procurement director for Convair Aviation Co., San Diego, Calif., said all 17 units—valued at $200,000—were rejected for poor workmanship and were shipped back to the Recony Manufacturing Co., Richmond, Va.

Golem told a House Armed Services subcommittee investigating the deal that the 17 units were the first ones delivered under an order for 73.

The air conditioners are used in military airplanes to keep sensitive electronic instruments cool. The Recony firm was awarded a contract to supply the Air Force with 204 air conditioners.

Demos Jubilant Over Texas Win

Voters' Mood Has Changed

. . . Butler Asserts

WASHINGTON (AP) — Democrats reacted jubilantly Wednesday to off-season election victories in Texas and Michigan. Party Chairman Paul Butler said they mark national "disillusionment" with the way President Eisenhower's second term is going.

Eisenhower himself said the Democratic triumphs hardly "point to any victory by the Republicans" in next year's congressional elections. But he added: "I think the Republicans are alert to the situation, and are really going to work."

Yarborough

This was Eisenhower's reply when asked at his news conference if he saw the Texas and Michigan results as a "bad omen" for the GOP

Demos Keep Control

Democrats scored heavily in both states. In Texas, "loyal Democrat Ralph Yarborough won the special senatorial election and assured his party of continued control of the Senate. Republican Thad Hutcheson ran third. Michigan held state elections Monday and Democrats won from the GOP the two statewide offices which were up for grabs.

Butler said in a statement that in Texas "strong intervention" by Eisenhower and Vice President Nixon "failed to work its expected magic."

Promise Made

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — Texas' new junior U.S. senator is a never-say-die campaigner who fought back from three major political defeats to win the post where he will work with the Democratic leadership.

Ralph W. Yarborough, 53, said he would stand 100 per cent with the party on organizational matters.

Yarborough defeated a field of 19 candidates, including two Republicans, in a special election.

Almost complete returns gave Yarborough 326,616 votes, 37.2 per cent of the 877,891 votes tabulated.

Delay Asked

LONDON (AP)—The Labor Party's members in Parliament called for postponement of Britain's forthcoming H-bomb tests.

They unanimously adopted a resolution drafted by the so-called show cabinet—laborites who would have cabinet posts if labor took over the government.

The resolution added a suggestion of postponement for a limited period to a previous party statement calling for abolition of H-bomb tests by international agreement.

Youth Center Levy Okayed; Aasen Wins

FAIRBURY, Neb.—The proposal to increase the levy .3 of a mill for a youth center recreation fund won by 941-709, a margin of 34 over the 55 per cent needed.

There are 123 mail votes to be counted, but the issue needs only 32 to retain the favorable margin.

John Aasen was re-elected mayor, defeating a former mayor, Oscar Milius, 901-791. Clyde R. Moore and Faye Craig defeated George R. Betzer and Wilber Beasley for the two school board posts.

Incumbents for city council positions in three wards were victorious. They are Harry Arnold, first ward; George Bliss, second ward, and Jack Henney, third ward.

Grace Merrick, city clerk and Harold Livingston, city treasurer, were both re-elected unopposed.

Briscoe In Omaha After Bomb Scare

OMAHA (AP) — Robert Briscoe, Jewish lord mayor of Dublin, Ireland, on a tour seeking good will for Ireland and aid for one hundred thousand Jewish refugees, came to Omaha nearly three hours late Wednesday night because of a threat that his plane from San Francisco was carrying a bomb.

The ship was held up in Denver while FBI agents searched for the non-existant explosive.

He addressed a gathering at the Highland Country Club on behalf of a fund campaign sponsored by the Omaha Federation for Jewish Service and the United Jewish Appeal Emergency Relief Fund. The drive, with a national goal of one hundred million dollars, seeks funds to transport Jewish refugees from Europe and Africa. The goal for Omaha is 750 thousand dollars.

He told a news conference at the airport that he hopes his tour through this country will help Americans understand Irishmen better, and that he would like to build up American tourism in his country and promote Irish products, "particularly those of our distilleries."

To the Jewish audience at the Country Club, he said that he is very optimistic about the state of Israel. He said that he expects in his time to see Israel stand as a democracy, making contributions to the democratic world. The problem with Egypt would have been settled by Israel, had Britain and France not intefered, he said.

The informal ceremony was at the residence of U.S. Ambassador John Hay Whitney. Prince Philip is captain general of the Royal Marines.

The Commando was attached to the American First Marine Division.

2 Die; Man, Child Hurt By Shots

METHUEN, Mass. (AP)—A 62-year-old man went berserk in the "Little Italy" section of Methuen Wednesday, police said, killing another man and himself and wounding a third man critically and a little girl slightly.

Dead are Emil A. Slombo, 35, proprietor of an oil company across the town line in Lawrence; and Michael Bascio, who Deputy Police Chief Christopher Devine said did the shooting.

Antonio Didio, a neighbor of Bascio, was in serious condition at Bon Secours Hospital. Associate medical examiner Paul A. Oskar said Didio, 67, shot in the stomach may die.

Oskar said Bascio shot Slombo through the heart and fired a .32 caliber bullet into his own brain.

Fracture

The girl, 4-year-old Gail Dinoto, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sebastiano Dinoto, suffered a compound fracture of her right arm when struck by a bullet.

Devine said Slombo was at the scene by accident, doing another oil dealer a favor who was unable to make delivery because of a truck breakdown and Slombo volunteered to deliver the oil.

Methuen patrolman Monroe K. Bean said Bascio had been drinking.

The area is known as Little Italy because of the large population of persons of Italian descent, its many vineyards and snug little homes.

Burnell O. Tracy Dies At Age 74; Native Of Wilber

Burnell Osborn Tracey, 74, of 828 So. 11th, died Wednesday.

A fire department resuscitator was called, but was unable to revive him.

A native of Wilber, he had lived in Lincoln about three years.

Surviving are his wife, Jessie; daughter, Mrs. John Davison of Dalton; two granddaughters reared in the Tracy home, Mrs. John Hajek of Sidney and Beverly Wasser of Minden. Several other grandchildren survive.

Rosenblatt, Simon Are Candidates; Pay Hike Loses

OMAHA (AP)—Mayor John Rosenblatt and City Councilman Simon A. Simon were nominated for mayor in the Omaha primary election and will meet in the final May 14.

Rosenblatt ran well ahead of Simon, and Simon was far ahead of the third candidate, Lynn E. Wyren.

The voters emphatically rejected a proposal that City Council pay be set at $6,000 instead of the $3,000 stated in the new charter.

A slate of seven members of the committee that drew up Omaha's new city charter all won nomination for City Council posts. They were A. V. Sorensen, Harry Trutin, Sam W. Reynolds, N. Phil Dodge, Wray M. Scott, James J. Dworak and Mrs. Kenneth T. Graham.

Other council nominees of a late count appeared to be W. P. Garvey, city Councilman Warren R. Swigert, city Councilman William R. Milner, Albert L. Veys, city Councilman Henry Boesen, Ernest Adams and Dr. Frank Barta.

Boy's Tic Tac Toe Machine Nervous, But Always Wins

ALAMEDA, Calif. (AP) — An electric computer which plays an unrestricted game of tic tac toe against a human opponent has been built here by a scientifically-minded 15-year-old high school student.

Unlike most such machines, this one permits its opponent to make the first play and puts no restrictions on his moves. Also, it sometimes develops a case of "nerves" says its inventor, Edward McLaughlin.

Its temperament is due mainly to its more than 1,000 soldered connections, and to slight variations in commercial types of relays, resistors and rectifiers, Edward said.

However, the human contender can't win. The best he can get is a tie. If he makes one false move, the machine bangs through with three blobs of red light in a row among the nine squares and gives a victorious squawk via a buzzer.

Edward said he is considering re-wiring the computer so the human player can win once in a while—just to keep him interested.

4 Tots Killed In Home Fire

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Four children, all under 7 years of age, burned to death in a house fire about five miles southwest of here Wednesday night, the Franklin County Sheriff's Office reported.

The four were lying side by side in the same bedroom while the five-room frame house went up in flames, officers reported.

Three were tentatively identified as the children of Mr. and Mrs. Denver Triplett, who lived in the burned house. The three were said to be Marcus, Mike and Sandy Triplett. The identity of the fourth child, an infant, was not immediately known.

Another Triplett child, 11, was away visiting relatives, officers said.

Sheriff's Lt. Ellsworth Beck, chief sheriff's deputy Dale Thisbaut and Franklin County coroner Robert Evans were questioning the parents (ages unavailable) in a nearby farmhouse early Thursday morning.

Sheriff's deputy Wayne Friedberg said the Tripletts were ordered into domestic relations court here last week following a family argument. Disposition of the case was not known.

1 Killed, 30 Hurt In Train Collision

SECAUCUS, N.J. (AP) — The engineer of a Pennsylvania railroad passenger train was killed and more than 30 persons were reported injured Wednesday night when the train crashed into the rear of an empty train here.

The mishap occurred shortly after the electrically powered six car passenger train emerged from the Hudson River tunnel bound for New Brunswick from New York.

The train struck the rear of an eight-car train of baggage cars. One car of the passenger train was derailed and two cars of the baggage train.

The dead engineer was identified as C. E. Cochran of Iselin, by George Halleran, public relations representative of the Pennsylvania. Two trainmen were said to be among the injured.

Halleran said the empty train, belonging to the New York Central railroad was using the Pennsylvania tracks while bound for a nearby interchange.

Senators Call On Dulles To Resist Appointment 'Pressures'

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate Foreign Relations Committee called on Secretary of State Dulles Wednesday night to resist any pressure for the appointment of ambassadors as a reward for political or other service.

In a letter made public after its approval by the committee, Chairman Green (D-RI) told Dulles that in view of the State Department's heavy responsibilities, "we should have first-rate ambassadors in every port."

"It is generally known that presidents and secretaries of state of both political parties have been under pressure from those who feel that an ambassadorship is a reward for past service or help," Green wrote. "In my opinion, we can no longer afford to give way to such pressure in any appointment-making."

Moral Support

Green made public the letter without comment, but other members of the committee said privately it was intended to give Dulles moral support to resist the appointment of unqualified men for key posts in the Foreign Service.

It was not aimed at any particular appointment and was approved in a "nonpartisan spirit," they said.

"The test in every case should be whether a nominee for a particular post is the best American who can best serve the interests of this country there," Green told Dulles.

Nixon Critical

One member said he recalled news stories after Vice President Nixon's tour of Africa that Nixon was critical of some of the American diplomats in that area.

"It is not critical of political appointees as such," another member said privately. "Many of them have performed outstanding services."

Sen. Mansfield (D-Mont) recently announced he would ask the Senate Appropriations Committee to consider raising the expense accounts of ambassadors, particularly in posts like London, Paris and Rome.

July 4 Parties

These ambassadors are said to be allowed about $11,000 a year for expenses, which is hardly enough to finance the annual 4th of July parties each embassy is required to throw.

Mansfield said at the time this virtually excludes the appointment of career men like Charles E. (Chip) Bohlen from appointments to posts they cannot afford.

Bohlen is leaving the embassy at Moscow to become ambassador to the Philippines.

Omaha Engineer Firm Seeks $300,000 From CPPD In Contract Breach Suit

Consumers Public Power District of Columbus was sued for $300,000 damages Wednesday in Lancaster District Court by Fay Smith & Associates, Inc., for alleged breach of contract.

The Omaha engineering firm alleges a 1954 agreement with Consumers for the furnishing of engineering services in the planning, designing and construction of a steam-powered generating plant in the Lincoln-Beatrice area.

On March 5, 1954, the Omaha firm's proposal was approved by Consumers' directors and a written contract was developed.

Injunction Filed

But before the contract's signing, the Loup and Platte Public Power Districts filed an injunction suit contesting Consumers' right to build the plant.

During this litgation the engineering firm performed limited services for Consumers and was paid $12,854.17.

Fay Smith & Associates allege they assumed only the risk that the project would not be built, but did not grant Consumers the right to hire a different firm of engineers.

After a Nebraska Supreme Court decision determining that Consumers could legally proceed with a generating plant, the power district tentatively considered to utilize atomic energy and requested the Omaha firm to submit engineering proposals, it is alleged.

Later, according to the petition, Consumers abandoned the agreement and hired a different firm of engineers.

The Omaha firms asks $300,000 for alleged breach of its original agreement for engineering services on a steam-generating plant.

County Motor Vehicle Tax Intake Down

Lancaster County Treasurer C. E. Berg collected $1.6 million in 1957 motor vehicle taxes and license fees through March 31.

This is about $50,000 less than collected for the same three-month period in 1956.

This year's auto tax collections were down about $90,000 from last year, but registration fees were up abuot $40,000.

Motor vehicle tax collections amounted to $891,534 compared with $983,361 last year. License plate fees totalled $737,538 this year compared with $694,077 for the same 1956 period.

A total of 55,342 license plates were issued up to April 1.

Motor vehicle tax and license fees are distributed to the state, county, cities and villages within the county.

Ex-Nebraskan Has High Industry Post

Dr. Harvard L. Hull, a native of Holstein, Neb., and a 1927 Nebraska Wesleyan University graduate, has been named general manager of a subsidiary of Litton Industries, Inc., in College Park, Md.

The firm manufactures automatic control devices, X-ray equipment, servomechanisms and other special electronic equipment.

Dr. Hull, who has been general manager of another Litton division in Beverly Hills, Calif., is a former student of Dr. J. C. Jensen, long-time Wesleyan science teacher now retired and living in Lincoln.

Ehlers Will Head NU Experimental Station At Alliance

ALLIANCE, Neb (AP)—Paul Ehlers, supervisor of outstate crop testing for the Nebraska University College of Agriculture, has been named superintendent of the Box Butte Experimental Station near Alliance.

He has been at the North Platte Experimental Station since 1947 and is a graduate of the College of Agriculture. Ehlers will continue for a time to supervise some of the outstate testing plots until someone is assigned to replace him.

Ehlers said the Box Butte farm will stress stubble mulch tillage experiments, wheat variety testing and tests on safflower cultural methods. Numerous other long-term projects also will be continued.

Ehlers officially begins his duties here April 15.

Tiney's Bid Low On Sherman Lights

Tiney's Electric Co. has submitted the low bid of $2,105 at the City Hall for furnishing 66 floodlight reflectors for use at Sherman Field.

The purchase is part of the program of modernization of the field's lighting system. New poles have been purchased for $880.

The lights will be moved back off the playing field and new reflectors installed.

Also received was a $2,401 bid from Chambers Construction Co. for a new transformer vault for the Municipal Bldg. at 10th and Q.

'Falsies' Get Blame For Fire In Laundry

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—A pair of "falsies" was blamed for a fire which did more than $4,000 worth of damage at a laundry and dry cleaning plant.

One of the plant's owners said he believed the falsies—used by women to provide curves where they don't exist naturally—were left in a basket of clothes which had been dried in a hot air tumbler.

He said the material of which the articles are made holds the heat and can cause an explosion if kept in an unventilated place.

Child Killed

KEYSTONE, W. Va. (AP)—A four year old boy, playing in a vacant house with his sister, was killed when a window sash slammed down on his neck.

Coroner J. A. Bennett identified the victim as Darrell Ray Burnette.

The sister ran to her mother after the accident but Darrell was dead by the time the mother reached his side.

The window sash struck the youngster behind the left ear, snapping his neck, Dr. Bennett said.

Grant Courthouse Suit Dismissed

HYANNIS, Neb. (AP) — District Judge William Spikes of St. Paul has dismissed a suit for an injunction to stop Grant County from building a $190,000 courthouse.

The injunction had been sought by Charles L. Boyd, Grant County resident, who contended the votes in the bond issue election had not been legally counted.

The bond issue carried by one vote.

Death of Leonard Flansburg

By J. E. LAWRENCE

It was a college gathering in Lincoln where we first met Leonard Flansburg, who after a distinguished career died Tuesday evening.

We were entering a freshman class—he had been graduated from the University of Nebraska—and it was a fraternity group which brought us together.

Through all these years he has been a kindly friend, with words of encouragement, cheerfulness, and inspiration.

There was a great deal of his father in Leonard Flansburg. He did his own thinking, ever careful never to hurt others but at the same time independent in the exercise of judgment and in the conclusions which he reached. He was a careful observer of developments in the local community, in Nebraska, in the nation and in these rushing years of international crises in the world.

The story of his life is one of devotion, of application and usefulness in the practice of his chosen profession and in his devotion to civic betterment. He served in the Legislature, as deputy city attorney, as a member of the convention which drafted Lincoln's first home rule charter, as a judge in the Third Judicial District, as a member of the Nebraska Supreme Court Commission, and then as a member of the court itself. He was a past president of the Bar Association of Lincoln and also of the American and Nebraska Bar Associations. He was a director of the National Bank of Commerce and affiliated with many organizations too numerous to mention here.

In all of his busy career, Mr. Flansburg was a kindly warm-hearted friend.

Worn Out With Waiting

The chances for any substantial federal aid to education appear to be growing slimmer as the current Congress moves forward. Some will regret that. Others who do not favor either greater federal spending or any injection of federal influence in the American education system will feel relieved.

But it is unfortunate that the question has digressed from one of accommodating American youth to one centering on the point of whether the federal government should or should not move into the picture. What is happening is that precious years are slipping past while the children are going on unaccommodated, and if the battle for a more highly trained youth is as critical to national welfare as they say then we are losing it because of a failure to regard timeliness.

Children continue to be what they were at the time of the first Adam—creatures of the calendar. They have the characteristic of growing up rapidly, of passing into and out of the period when their education is applied or it will never be applied.

A decade ago the problem of accommodating a war generation was declared urgent. A matter of 17 or 18 years constitutes a full generation when it comes to accommodating children with pre-college training. It has been 15 years since America entered World War II. While we are still planning for the educational care of "the war generation" it is a fact that it is already upon us and in a few more years it will have passed into adulthood. In 1955 there were 556,000 more pupils than class rooms. In 1956, according to the federal Office of Education, there were 610,000 and the office goes on to say that the coming seven years will see an enrollment increase of 49 per cent.

In the light of that we may as well quit planning for the war generation. It will be gone before accommodations can now be prepared for it.

Honeymoon's End

By J. E. LAWRENCE

There were a lot of sheepish Washington newspapermen Wednesday, we assume. They had been speculating on the possibility of a Republican triumph in Texas in a special election that for Republicans carried hopes of victory for Thad Hutcheson of Houston in the filling of a Senate seat.

With two Republicans entered, Hutcheson ran third among a total of 20 candidates, including 18 Democrats. But most significant of all was the victory of liberal Ralph Yarborough, an uncompromising Democrat, who for the period of Shivers' domination carried on the Democratic fight against Gov. Shivers' faction. That Democratic vote was impressive. With the complete count yet to be tabulated when this was written, Yarborough had 310,842 votes to 255,016 for Democrat Dies and 202,721 for Hutcheson.

The result, of course, means that the Democrats will continue to control the Senate as well as the House of Representatives. But it means more than that. Earlier this week on this page we had said that it appeared that the honeymoon for Ike was over and twice within seven days there has been a striking demonstration that since the first of the year the President has lost much of his popularity with the voters.

In Michigan on Tuesday it was a clean sweep of all state offices for the Democrats for the first time in the history of that state. Texas was supposed to present the miracle of a Republican victory, with the stakes control of Congress, with Ike's interest in the Republican victory made clear, and with Sir Richard Nixon issuing an appeal to the people of Texas on behalf of the Republican Senate candidate. All that happened was that the Republican placed third in a race back of two Democrats, one a conservative and the other a liberal, and the combined vote of the Republican, Thad Hutcheson, was only a third of that of the two top Democrats.

The honeymoon is over, it is becoming more apparent each passing month. Probably mounting irritations among America's former friends abroad, unpopularity of resource and farm programs, and the natural irritations resulting from being in office have much to do with it. But most of all, we are inclined to think, it was Ike's record peacetime budget that contributed most to disenchantment.

Of Men And Things

By J. E. LAWRENCE

This is mostly about a guy named Jim and his first night in the hospital in all of the years of a newspaper life, with never a dull moment, so it has seemed. This is the gay, rollicking tale of a first night in the hospital—that is, the first night up until last night. It happened several years ago and for obvious reasons the names of the principal actors are omitted.

★

We had gone to the hotel to join the Missus and the woman's editor of The Lincoln Star for dinner, tired of mind, weary of body, looking forward to relaxation and rest. The good wife, ever thoughtful and observant, took note of the weariness and gave us a couple of small pills to be swallowed. Amazingly the room grew dark. We barely could see the plate of turkey, stuffing and gravy in front of us. That was the last we knew for an uncertain period. We came back to consciousness, a face well-splattered with gravy and dressing, aware that those nearby seemed to be watching us intently. And then we heard our wife pleading for someone to get a doctor and an ambulance. Her pleas were answered by a friend of years' standing, the proprietor of the hotel himself, who blocked the path in front of us, shook a finger and shouted:

A Dive Into Plate Of Turkey

"You are going to the hospital!"

That is what he thought and as it finally turned out, he knew more about it than we did. But with courtly bow, pulling ourselves up to full height, we said to him:

"Mr. S.—if you will please get out of our way, we are going home."

How wrong we were! How right he was! We had reached the door leading outside when a couple of guys with what appeared to us to be a basket but was not grabbed us, upended us, stuffed us into an ambulance and there we were, siren sounding, showing the boys a little bit of speed.

★

In less time than it takes to tell it, we found ourselves stretched out on a hospital bed. Our own personal physician was out of town. The hospital doctor, a fine friend and a most competent medical man, advanced upon us with these comforting words: "We are going to give you a hypodermic so you will sleep." Back of him was one of those ladies in white, the nurse, holding in her hands what seemed to us to be a wicked looking tube, needle hidden.

★

By what for us seemed to be a supreme effort, we sat bolt upright in bed, glanced first at the doctor and then the nurse with these words: "Get the hell out of here." From what we could observe of the doctor's facial expression, that is the last reaction in the world he was expecting from a patient. We were equally certain that the nurse, bless her heart and all of the many who devote their lives to nursing, was equally surprised. Now last evening back for a second visit—back to the hospital for the second night in many years—with the solemn resolve to do that which we are told to do. It is only a minor matter, we were told by a very wonderful, kindly, and thoughtful surgeon and a equally wonderful doctor who month after month watches over us and never could know the faith, confidence, admiration and the affection which we have for him.

Invitation To Depart

We were seated at the desk earlier in the week busily at work. The telephone rang. It was the voice of the surgeon. To know him is to like him instantly and also to trust his judgment. "We understand you are going to do a little bit of cutting," we said to him after exchanging greetings. "The south forty needs a little attention," the words came back by way of answer. So here we are lookin' up at the ceiling for the second night in a lifetime, looking up at the ceiling in gratefulness to a kind Providence who has seen to it that in a period of nearly half a century we have lost only three days from the office by reason of physical ailment. For that, we are deeply humble and overflowing with happiness.

The Old Error

After a year of exile Archbishop Makarios will be allowed to return to Cyprus by the British. That does not mean that trouble is abating in Cyprus or that the British are in a better position than a year ago. The main thing it signifies is that Britain lost ground by exiling Makarios. As an experienced world power it should have known better.

History is replete with mistaken efforts to silence dissident people by exiling their leaders. The French just got through playing a losing hand by spiriting away the Tunisian leader Habib Bourguiba. Russia lost precious ground by jailing and removing Cardinal Mindszenty. Western powers exiled Napoleon only to see him return with redoubled power and pitch them all into a dreadful war.

Aside from losses through exile, the stronger power further hurts its cause by removing the principal figure with whom they can treat. A man like Makarios who has back of him a nation of trustful people can be an asset to a greater power. All that is required is to make a fair deal with him. But when one such is removed there is the implication that a fair deal isn't what is wanted.

Israel Thinks U.S. Welshed On Word

WASHINGTON — Things are simmering a bit more silently in the Near East since the Bermuda conference, but they are still simmering dangerously. Three developments point to danger:

Development No. 1 — The American embassy in Jerusalem has warned the State Department that Prime Minister Ben-Gurion is deadly serious about going to war against Egypt the minute Nasser shows the first sign of starting his border raids again.

Ben-Gurion and his entire cabinet are convinced both Eisenhower and John Foster Dulles welshed on their promise that Egypt would not return to the Gaza Strip.

Development No. 2 — Dulles' statement last week that transit through the Gulf of Aqaba should be submitted to the world court, further convinced the Israelis that they had been double-crossed. His statement brought Israeli Minister Shiloah down to the State Department to remind Dulles that earlier he had said Israel had every right to pass through this narrow waterway. The protection of U.S. naval vessels was even discussed. Dulles' later proposal of putting the question before the world court would take a year or more of argument.

Development No. 3 — Premier Mollet has promised the Israelis protection of the French Air Force if they decide to attack Nasser again.

Premier Mollet is so burned up over the double-cross given to Israel that he has vowed never to trust any agreement with Eisenhower as long as John Foster Dulles remains secretary of state. It was Mollet who, while visiting in Washington last February, was largely responsible for persuading the Israelis to pull out of the Gaza Strip.

Eisenhower at that time had personally promised that the United States would get tough if Nasser moved to return; and Mrs. Golda Meir's speech outlining the terms of Israeli withdrawal was personally read by both Mollet and Dulles before delivery. The terms were that "civil administrative control" of the Gaza Strip would remain in the hands of the U.N.

Israel has the toughest, most determined army in the Near East. But it has lacked air power. With French air power backing it up, American diplomats know that no Arab army or combination of Arab armies could long stand up against it. They are even more afraid of what Russia might do, however, in case war broke in the Near East.

Note — At Bermuda, British Prime Minister Macmillan urged the President to adopt a tough policy toward Nasser. Ike refused. At one point Macmillan asked how much more proof was needed that Nasser was a power-mad fanatic. Eisenhower replied that more was needed than was then available.

WASHINGTON PIPELINE

The Senate foreign relations committee is investigating charges that Dr. Ralph Bunche, American U.N. official, encouraged Egyptian Dictator Nasser to seize control of the Gaza Strip. Senators have received reports that Bunche was charmed by the Egyptian dictator and agreed to turn U.N. control of Gaza back to Egypt. The original plan had been to let the U.N. administer the area until the crisis blew over. But Bunche's visit with Nasser seemed to encourage the dictator to move right in . . . Secretary of State Dulles is about ready to end the ban on U.S. newsmen going to Communist China. In return, the Communists are supposed to release the eight imprisoned Americans . . . several Hungarian refugees have deserted the refugee camps and slipped back behind the Iron Curtain. Too much red tape over finding new homes.

Williams A Demo To Reckon With

WASHINGTON — Governor G. Mennen (Soapy) Williams, a liberal young Democrat, this week displayed a remarkably impressive pair of coattails in the typical pivotal state of Michigan.

In an off-year election marked by voter apathy and with an unremarkable slate of candidates, Democrats swept the boards clean. Williams, elected last fall to his fifth term as governor, was not on the ticket but in a hard-hitting, statewide campaign laid his own prestige on the block for it.

Even his opponents are now saying, "It was Soapy who did it." The net to him is increased national stature which will force Democrats to reassess his 1960 possibilities, plus undisputed command of his state.

The Williams rise is accompanied by a comparable collapse of the Republican state organization. Michigan observers are talking about the wreckage of the top and suggest that Republican Senator Charles E. Potter will need a miracle to win re-election next year.

☆ ☆ ☆

The general expectation is that Williams will not oppose Potter but will run for his sixth term and win. Such a victory would make him easily the senior in point of service among the 48 state governors.

Of the 48, there are 29 Democrats. They will head their delegations to the national convention and carry great weight in the selection of the national ticket.

The probable opposition to Potter is Lieutenant-Governor Philip Hart. Like Potter, Hart was badly wounded in World War II combat; unlike many Democrats, he has good connections with the business community of Detroit.

Williams has from the start had the constant support of labor in populous Wayne county, which includes Detroit. His ability to win re-election shows, however, that he has wide public acceptance beyond labor. He has also built an effective state organization under a talented state chairman, Neil Stabler.

Stabler's work in Michigan attracted the attention of the national committee, which made him head of a committee on organization to teach his fellow-Democrats how it's done. The Stabler committee report is now in the hands of National Chairman Paul Butler, who has said he would promote its general acceptance.

The story of the Michigan Republicans seems to be chiefly one of factional strife and uninteresting candidates. However, their ticket which just met defeat was said to be as good as that of the Democrats who won.

BOB CONSIDINE

Wealthy Bootblack; Civilization 1957

NEW YORK — On April 15, shortly before noon, four presidents of corporations housed in the old Brady building at the corner of Cedar and West in downtown New York will pick up the building's bootblack, Sam Rubino, and take him to a splendid luncheon at the Lawyers Club.

Sam has been a tenant of the building since it was opened just 50 years ago. The presidents are George Ferris, Raymond Concrete Pile Co., F. H. Lantry, of the M. H. Treadwell Industrial Construction Co., Perry Shoemaker, president of the Delaware Lackawan', and William Collins, president of the Walter Kidde Construction Co. Those firms located themselves in the building in 1907 and are still there.

The 23 story building is the work of Cass Gilbert. It is said to have been espied by F. W. Woolworth one day as he came up the bay on a returning trans-Atlantic liner, wereupon he sought out Gilbert and assigned him to raise the Woolworth Tower.

Sam Rubino reached New York in 1902 with a letter to a relative. From his flying brushes and shine cloths he educated three sons, is the proud grandfather of a small army and owns a home in Brooklyn. If his four presidential friends have any trouble with the check at the club, Sam can take care of it.

A recent piece here about the woes of hitchhiking brings a terrible account from a reader:

"Once I came down Riverside Drive on a bus. In front of Charlie Schwab's old manse lay a woman, prostrate, in the street. Hundreds of cars passing, but no one slowed. I couldn't take it. I streaked off the bus and found the girl alive, stiff as a corpse, though. My first such encounter.

"Not a car driver would answer my shouts or hand imploring. It was unbelievable. Riverside Drive, civilization, Golden Rule, a woman dying.

"I jeered a chauffeur into shame. He pulled to the curb and with constant protests of fright that he might become 'involved' he helped me load her into his deluxe town car, and off to Roosevelt hospital where I talked them into letting him go and took all responsibility. I stayed a long time. Finally, they were persuaded she would live. I left.

JESUS LOVED THEM

The Girl Restored

"And he took the damsel by the hand, and said unto her, Talitha cumi; which is, being interpreted, Damsel, I say unto thee, arise."
Mark V:41

Luke tells us that this girl, daughter of Jairus, was about twelve years old, but he does not divulge the nature of her illness nor give her name.

Her father, the governor of a synagogue, sought Jesus out, asking Him to heal his only daughter.

But even as he was asking help, a messenger arrived from his house telling him that the girl was already dead.

Jesus, however, told the anxious father that he need not fear. "Believe only, and she shall be made whole."

When He came to the house with Jairus, funeral ceremonies were already in progress. But again Jesus reassured the grieving parent. "The damsel is not dead, but sleepeth."

By this, He apparently meant that her soul was not so far departed that He could not summon it again into the body, for when Jesus took her by the hand and told her to arise, Luke says:

"Her spirit came again, and she arose straightway."

Jesus then directed that she be given food to restore her depleted physical energy.

Her parents were naturally astonished because, although they had faith that Jesus might heal her of her illness, they had little hope that He could bring her back from the dead.

Jesus cautioned them "that they should tell no man what was done."

Some Bible scholars say that He enjoined secrecy because the time of His suffering and death had not yet come; and He did not want to provide a pretext for the rulers to conspire against Him.

As a matter of fact, when the chief priests did demand His death, they based their condemnation partly on His miracles.

"What do we, for this man doth many miracles? If we let him thus alone, all men will believe on him; and the Romans will come and take away both our place and nation."

Why, then, did Jesus perform such miracles? Many believe that it was to identify Himself as One having divine approbation and divine power.

"If I do not the works of my father, believe me not," He declares in John X:37. "But if I do, though ye believe not me, believe the works."

LB 431

Lincoln Neb.

To the editor of The Lincoln Star: On March 6 LB 431 was heard before the committee on government. It was opposed because it gives a few officials unlimited authority to acquire property with or without the consent of the owner. These officials are not elected by the people and are not responsible to them. Though they are empowered to spend tax money in unlimited amounts, no bond is required of them. There is no limit to the debt they can incur in the name of the city, or to the levy they can make on taxable property. There is no time limit. Once established, urban authority is to be perpetual.

Because of the absence of these safeguards, the Citizens' Committee asked that the bill be amended to require a vote of the people of each city before urban authority could be established in that city. The government committee voted the bill out on March 13, and for a few days we were allowed to believe that our amendment had been attached. Then we learned that it had not.

Since the Lincoln senators — Liebers, Portsche and Waggoner — introduced LB 431, we approached them requesting that our amendment be introduced on the floor. Sen Waggoner most kindly agreed to do this. So for a few days our little amendment was doing well enough again. But Sen. Waggoner availed himself of the right of a wise man to change his mind, and again the amendment went into retirement.

On March 28 the three senators from Lincoln graciously granted an interview to a representative group of the Citizens' Committee. They took time to explain how they regard LB 431 and why they object to an amendment that subjects the issue of urban renewal to popular vote. We condense their arguments from memory; if we misquote or misinterpret, will somebody please correct us.

1. There is no point to having a popular vote on this issue. Urban renewal with federal aid is a fact. The bill must pass. You can't stop progress.

2. The question is so involved that the people cannot understand it. They would be sure to vote it down.

3. The people are indifferent. They will not take the trouble to inform themselves.

In a subsequent letter we hope to discuss these points.

WINNIFRED LEWIS
Chairman, Citizens' Committee

Are Out-Numberd

Dorchester, Neb.

To the editor of The Lincoln Star: After reading Mrs. Taxpayer's letter from Friend on the redistricting issue, I think she has the same opinion as most farmers in the rural area.

Our county officials call it democracy because they are giving us a chance to vote on this form of redistricting. But is it real democracy when we are all asked to vote in town in one unit, knowing that we—the farmers—are outnumbered by the greater population in the town of Friend?

During the past year we have redistricted in our local farm district, joining three districts and building a new schoolhouse and having a very fine, modern schoolhouse.

One paragraph in the redistricting issue states that they may use a few of the distant schools in the rural area as ward schools, but run by the town district. In that case, why not let us farmers keep our own schools in our own district where we can run them ourselves. This seems to be taking away our free rights.

Why not let us farmers vote in our own district if we wish to join the town district?

I am sure that the town people would not stand for any interference from the farmers in running of their schools.

We know that it is our duty to vote April 9, but we also know that to be outnumbered means to be defeated.

MR. VOTER

No Indispensables

Lincoln, Neb.

To the editor of The Lincoln Star: Much credit should go to "Tax Tired" (Star, March 30) for his effort to bring out a report on salaries paid state officials in other states as compared with those in Nebraska. This report should be front-page news where all the legislators could see it and not be ever-ready to hand out salary raises.

We have some who have tried to create the impression that they are indispensable. As "Tax Tired" says, there are no indispensables. The threat of losing employes and teachers to other states is merely a weapon being used to hoodwink our legislators. It will always be present. Let them go. There are many others who will be glad to fill the vacancies without the yearly cry for more salary.

We in Nebraska have reached the limit in paying taxes. There is no justification for adding more. It's just a habit, but the time has now arrived to correct it.

Gov. Anderson started out with good intentions and has succeeded in his effort to control spending. Why must he put up with tax-eating specialists who confront him constantly with the old cry for more money? If they can't get along on what he feels should be spent, let them leave and let others take over.

Unicameral Revives Strike Ban Bill

...Move Develops To Add Stockyards To Protected List

The Unicameral voted 22-9 Wednesday to revive a committee-killed bill which would broaden the state's jurisdiction over local disturbances growing out of strikes or other labor emergencies involving public utilities and governmental service in a proprietary capacity.

A move also developed to add stockyards to the list of public utilities against which labor strikes are banned by law.

The measure, LB 564, carries no mention of stockyards but Sen. Harold Stryker of Rising City, who moved to revive it, said he would seek to have it amended to add stockyards to the list.

The bill, introduced by Senators August Wagner of Columbus and Karl Vogel of Omaha, generated a lot of heat at a public hearing before the Labor Committee, which then voted 4-3 to indefinitely postpone it.

Sen. Stryker said the bill, as drawn, puts "more teeth" in present law and endeavors to create "a more peaceful" atmosphere in labor difficulties. The bill affects management as much as labor, he said.

Sen. Willard Waldo of DeWitt said a livestock raiser could be virtually wiped out financially by a stockyards strike catching his cattle shipment in the yards.

Open The Door

But Sen. Terry Carpenter of Scottsbluff questioned whether the addition of stockyards to the list of utilities protected against strikes might not open the door to addition of other enterprises, too.

If stockyards are protected, why not dairies as well, he suggested.

Sen. Wagner contended stockyards are as important to the public welfare as are many public utilities.

DOUGLAS ATTORNEY BILL HOTLY DEBATED, OKAYED

State legislators gave 21-14 initial approval to LB 513, Wednesday, following a bitter debate in which Omaha senators divided on the measure which would prevent the Douglas County attorney and his deputies from private law practice on the side.

Proponents of the bill, introduced by Omaha Senators John Adams Sr., George Syas and William Moulton, said it would strengthen law enforcement and prosecutions in the county.

But Sen. Charles Tvrdik of Omaha stoutly supported a move to kill the measure and Omahans John Munnelly, Sam Klaver and Karl Vogel joined him in voting against the measure.

Sen. Ray Simmons of Fremont moved to kill the bill, but that motion was defeated 17-21. Then he moved to strike the enacting clause —another device to kill the measure—and that motion lost 13-21.

'Prejudice'

Tvrdik, calling the bill "spite legislation," said that even "racial prejudice" and "religion" are involved in the dispute.

He moved at one point to amend the bill to cover all county attorneys in the state, arguing that "if it's good for Omaha, it's good for all of Nebraska." He subsequently withdrew the motion.

Sen. Donald McGinley of Ogallala said the people of Omaha are split on the bill, the Omaha delegation in the Legislature is split "and even the lawyers in this body are split."

If Omaha needs a change in its system, McGinley said, the people have the right to express themselves in the ballot box. And the county board should be able to help promote full time work by the attorney's office without enactment of a law, he said.

New Series Of Atomic Tests Set To Begin In May

WASHINGTON (AP)—A new series of atomic tests is to begin about May 15 on the Nevada proving grounds northwest of Las Vegas.

The Atomic Energy Commission (AEC) announced the date Wednesday and said the nuclear explosions will be of relatively low force. The tests will be directed primarily at the development of new tactical weapons.

This will be the fifth major test series conducted in Nevada, where 45 explosions have been set off so far.

Known as Operation Plumb Bob, this summer's test shots will be spaced at greater intervals than was the case in the last series in 1955. The AEC explained it wanted to make allowance for weather delays, avoid overcrowding the housing facilities and permit more time for completing construction work.

A preliminary announcement about the tests made last January said arrangements would be made for "limited coverage" by newsmen, but the AEC gave no new details Wednesday.

It said it is expected the test site will be used intermittently throughout the summer. On April 10 an experiment "related to the safety of nuclear weapons handling and storage" will be conducted.

"Since there will be no nuclear detonation," the AEC said, "there are not expected to be any effects outside the immediate test area."

WASHINGTON (AP) — A routinely issued Air Force circular revealed Wednesday that the new "Ding Dong" nuclear anti-aircraft missile is being installed as regular armament on three types of jet fighters, including supersonic interceptors.

The circular, specifying equipment for training of crews of various fighter and bomber planes, presented what appeared a virtually complete run-down on the armament of all USAF aircraft — data which customarily is rated secret for newer types of planes.

It listed an "MB-1 rocket" (the Ding Dong missile designed by Douglas Aircraft which carries an atomic warhead) as armament for these planes:

F89J Northrop Scorpion fighter. To enable the Scorpion to carry two of the nuclear missiles, a special "J" series has been developed. The Air Force declined either to release pictures of the F89J and the MB-1 missile or to discuss them. However, the table indicates that two missiles are carried by a plane, apparently slung externally on shackles because of their size, instead of being mounted in pods at the wing tips. The F89s, one of the older of the jet fighters, fly at about 600 miles per hour.

F101B "Voodoo, a two-man version of the single-seater, McDonnell "Voodoo." equipped with radar for tracking down and destroying enemy bombers in any kind of weather, day or night. The 101s are faster-than-sound interceptors.

F106 Convair, a delta-wing interceptor, also supersonic in speed. This aircraft also can carry the Hughes "Falcon" anti-aircraft guided missiles, which are non-atomic.

Ben-Gurion: Many Jews May Be Leaving Russia

TEL AVIV, Israel (AP)—Premier David Ben-Gurion said Wednesday night there are good prospects of a large number of young Jews entering Israel from Russia.

He spoke at the opening of a new building of the Assn. of Israel Journalists in Tel Aviv. He did not disclose the basis for his information.

North Central Ground Water Supply 'Good'

WASHINGTON (AP)—The geological survey of the Interior Department reported that a lot of additional ground water is available in parts of the lower Niobrara River basin.

This is particularly true south of the river, according to the report of geology and ground water resources of the basin, made in connection with the Missouri River development program.

The report was called an aid to future development and conservation of ground water in an area of about 6,000 square miles in north central Nebraska and south central South Dakota.

The department said that presently, the most extensive irrigation development in the area using water from wells is on the so-called Ainsworth table in Brown County. There were about 33 large-capacity wells in use in 1952 to irrigate about 2,000 acres of land.

The largest unit of land in the basin suitable for irrigation is the similar Holt table in Holt County, the survey showed. Ground water supplies beneath the Holt table are believed to be adequate to irrigate a substantial part of the tableland.

EMERGENCY LOANS SET FOR FARMERS

Eligible farmers may apply at their local Farmers Home Administration for special emergency loans authorized by the secretary of agriculture, State FHA Director W. O. Collett said Thursday.

Interest rate is 3 per cent on the loan funds, which may be used for normal farm operating expenses but not for repaying existing debts.

The emergency loans may be made where there is a need for agricultural credit that cannot be met, for a temporary period, by commercial banks, co-operative lending agencies or the FHA under its regular programs.

Prospects Of Success

Applicants must be primarily engaged in farming and must have suitable experience and reasonable prospects for success in their farming operations, Collett said.

Repayments are scheduled according to the borrower's ability to pay, he said, but loans for crop production are scheduled for payment when the income from the crop is normally received.

Loans are secured by liens on crops and, when necessary, on other property, according to the state FHA director.

Oh, Mr. Reller! We Know Who Has Your Dollar

City Prosecuting Attorney Thomas Gorham proved to be a reluctant witness but collected a $1 witness fee despite his refusal to testify in a case in Municipal Court.

Defense Attorney Merril Reller asked Gorham to take the stand during the trial of a traffic case. Gorham declined, saying he had not been paid a witness fee (which is payable in advance).

Reller asked how much the customary fee was, and when told $1, he handed Gorham the dollar bill. But Gorham declined to take the stand anyway, and Judge John Jacobson refused to order him to do so. The case continued. When it was over Reller got up and left the courtroom, apparently forgetting the $1, which was on the table in front of the judge's stand.

Gorham took the dollar into "protective custody" to wait to see if Reller would decide he hadn't gotten his money's worth and would ask for it back.

WHEAT RESEAL PROGRAM OK'D

Nebraska farmers may reseal their 1955 or 1956 farm-stored wheat under loan or purchase agreements maturing March 31, 1958.

This decision by the Nebraska Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation committee was announced by Richard Lefferdink, Lancaster County ASC manager.

Farmers desiring the reseal program may notify their local ASC committee. If the ASC is not notified, the farmer will receive delivery instructions accompanied by an intention card which must be returned to the local office if the grower wants to reseal his wheat.

Airmen Suffer Minor Injuries

Two Lincoln Air Force Base airmen suffered minor injuries in a one-car accident on O between 48th and 49th, police reported.

Bobby D. Haynie, 24, suffered facial cuts and a nose injury and Albert Griffin, 19, suffered a leg injury, but both were released after treatment at a local hospital. Police said Haynie was driving the car west on O when he dozed off for a few seconds and the car jumped the curb on the south side of the street and sheared off a telephone pole.

'Gator Nabbed

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—An eight-foot alligator was captured in a storm sewer in a residential northwest Miami section as a crowd looked on.

Police and Humane Society agents took the 'gator to the animal shelter. It apparently had crawled into the sewer from the nearby Miami River.

Ike Asks People To Be 'Watchful' For Squandering

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower Wednesday invited the American people to be "watchful" of their government leaders to make sure there is "no looseness, no squandering, no racketeering, no lining of pockets" in big spending for peace.

Eisenhower made another defense of his budget and its high cost to insure "a more peaceful world" in an informal speech to the 5th annual Republican women's conference at the Statler Hotel. He and Mrs. Eisenhower were given rising ovations as they entered and left the hall.

Saying there are certain things in this world that are procured by sacrifice and that these are "most important to us," the chief executive said:

"What we should demand from government and from everybody in a place of authority is that those sacrifices are so organized, so watched, so carefully implemented that we do not uselessly squander our substance for any reason.

No War

"We must identify the things we must have, whether it is in the matter of foreign affairs to make certain there will be no war — whether it's a matter of services we need at home, in order that all of us may prosper better.

"Whatever it is, let us decide what we need and cheerfully make the sacrifices to get it, but make certain, at the same time, that there is no looseness, no squandering, no racketeering, no lining of pockets while this goes on.

"For my part, I hope that every agency of government — indeed every private citizen and every organization such as this—will watch the people in power. People are human. They make errors. We read about them every day in the papers—in investigations.

'Welcome'

"Human weakness has brought about situations that probably could have been discovered earlier if we were all as watchful as we should be.

"I welcome it. I hope you will continue it with jaundiced eyes."

In referring to the high cost of government, Eisenhower told the women they must know about this in their own budgets. He said corporation executives have told him their budgets are up from 6 to 10 per cent compared with 3½ per cent for the government. He added the industry leaders wanted to know why he wasn't "bragging" about this.

He said he could talk about many accomplishments in his administration, but he was not concerned with the past "except as it is a guide for the future."

Top Bracket

TOKYO (AP) — The National Tax Bureau said Japan's top reported personal income in 1956 totaled $503,611, the second highest $424,536. Both men, Konosuke Matsushita and Toshio Iue, are presidents of companies making electric appliances.

No Time Limit On Setting Bail If No Warrant Issued

There is no precise length of time nor specified limitation to the setting of bail on a person arrested and jailed without a warrant, the attorney general has held.

Fillmore County Attorney John C. Gewacke of Geneva asked the attorney general's office for an opinion on whether a court is authorized to release a prisoner on bail who has been arrested without warrant on a Sunday or after the regular closing hour of the county judge's office.

Gewacke wanted to know further if there is a definite time limit for the filing of a criminal charge and for taking a defendant before a court.

Asst. Atty. Gen. Ralph Nelson replied to the questions by citing the Nebraska Constitution, which provides merely that "all persons shall be bailable." He said that while the statutes make provision for bail "after there is a criminal charge and a warrant," there is no authorization for placing such limitations on the language of the constitution. However, he added, the courts generally have held that a bond set without a warrant is void.

Nelson held further that only a "general rule" exists that criminal charges must be formally filed "as soon as circumstances reasonably permit," and that there is no definite time limit.

Engineer Weaver Says Rain Good For County Roads

Lancaster County Engineer L. W. Weaver, as well as the farmers, is welcoming the ground-soaking rain and snow.

Contrary to the average motorist's beliefs, the rain is doing the county roads a lot of good.

"The rain is giving us a chance to get the gravel back on the roads where it will stay put," Weaver explained.

Gravel and even the "big stuff" dusts out of the road bed in long stretches of dry weather, according to Weaver. "When the soil is damp, the traffic works the gravel back into the road bed."

Weaver acknowledges that rain opens some soft spots in the roads, but adds: "It is more beneficial than harmful to road maintenance."

LONGSHOREMEN ASK TRADE WITH RED CHINA

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A resolution advocating free trade with all nations, including Red China, was passed unanimously Wednesday by the 12th biennial convention of the International Longshoremen's and Warehousemen's Union.

The 300 delegates representing around 55,000 workers on the Pacific Coast, in Alaska and in Hawaii acted after Longshoremen's President Harry Bridges warned them "this is the kind of resolution that causes us to be accused of being a subversive organization."

But, he said, "we are not proposing this to strengthen Communist China. They seem to be doing all right without our help.

'Americanism'

"A resolution like this shoves another prop under the free enterprise system. It's real Americanism."

The resolution also approved naming a six-man committee to lobby for free trade in Washington.

Benefits of "world trade in nonstrategic materials" would help longshoremen and everyone else in America, Bridges said.

"We want to get our goods abroad so our people will get jobs. We want peaceful trade with all nations of the world," he added.

He also said America's allies already trade with China in nonstrategic materials.

Bridges attacked the State Department's ban against American newsmen going to China.

"We're afraid," he said, "that even anti-labor reporters might visit China and report that the people there are satisfied with what they've got, that they're getting along without us."

Wage Demands

Other resolutions approved included demands for higher wages and bigger income tax exemptions for low-income families.

Bridges welcomed Fernando M. Lluck, representing the Stevedores Union of the Pacific, who said longshore conditions in his country, Mexico, were not as good as those in the United States.

But "it won't be long before the working class of Mexico will stand up in arms—not bearing guns but their civil rights — and fight to be recognized as human beings," Lluck said.

5 Are Killed

DACCA, East Pakistan (AP) — Police opened fire on 6,000 striking laborers who refused to disperse from the Ispahani jute mills at Chittagong.

At least five persons were reported killed and 30 admitted to hospital with wounds.

The strikers are demanding higher wages and a cost of living bonus.

Norris Defends Beatrice Pact, Says Marotz Is 'Misinformed'

Lyle Marotz of the Nebraska Rural Electric Association was accused by officers of the Norris Rural Public Power District of being misinformed about the new power contract for Beatrice.

Norris PPD officers defended the district's new contract with the city of Beatrice as "a good contract for the city."

Marotz had been quoted as questioning the property of a rural district's supplying municipal consumers. He also said he believed competition among rural public power districts was not in keeping with the role of public power in Nebraska.

In a letter to Marotz, signed by Norris President David G. Warner and three other company officers, the Norris district maintained that its proposal to the city of Beatrice "was not a surprise to any public power official."

"It would be against the public interest to exclude any public power agency from bidding on a wholesale power contract, thus giving one agency a monopoly of city business, and also depriving the people of the opportunity of securing electrical energy at the lowest possible rate," the letter continued.

The Norris district maintained that it was both "complying with the rules and regulations" of the Rural Electrification Administration and "keeping faith with the people of Nebraska by carying out our obligations under state law."

Transmission Line

The Norris officers also took issue with Marotz's statements regarding the proposed Fort Randall-Grand Island transmission line.

Marotz was quoted as saying that state public power agencies should get together and borrow the money for the line, if the federal government continues to hold off construction.

"You must realize," the letter said, "that the people of our state are entitled to have this line constructed by the federal government, just as it is being done in other states."

Mrs. Fay Smith Granddaughter Of Local Pioneer, Dies

Funeral services are pending for Mrs. Fay A. Smith, 66, of 1945 So. 45th, a lifetime resident of Lincoln.

Mrs. Smith

Mrs. Smith, who died Tuesday, was a member of Trinity Methodist Church, Electa Chapter 8 of OES, Burlington Veterans Auxiliary and the Lincoln Woman's Club.

She was the granddaughter of the late P. H. Cooper, Lincoln's first police chief and founder of Lincoln's first ice company.

Surviving are her husband, Lyle H.; son, Loren Cooper Smith of Lincoln; daughters, Mrs. Jean Lucille Bogie of Van Nuys, Calif., and Mrs. Dorothy Fay Nelson of Maracaibo, Venezuela; brother, Philip Howard Cooper of San Clemente, Calif., and four grandchildren.

Bill Stiffening Picket Laws Reported Out

A bill stiffening penalties for violators of state picketing laws won Labor Committee's approval Wednesday.

The measure, LB 502, was advanced to the floor of the Legislature by a 4-3 vote.

As introduced originally by Sen. LeRoy Bahensky of Palmer, LB 502 would make an person, corporation, labor union or association violating picketing laws liable to treble damages—three times the amount of actual damages.

As amended before being advanced, however, the bill would make the treble damages apply also to employers or others interfering with legal picketing.

Also reported out, by a 5-1 vote, was LB 595, authorizing the Board of Control to place children who are in its charge in incorporated homes. At present such children can be placed only in private homes.

Senators Advance County Road Bill

The state Legislature Wednesday advanced from general file LB 111, a voluminous bill recodifying county road laws.

An amendment offered by Sen. John Aufenkamp of Julian, raising from 15,000 to 18,000 the population limit for counties in which employment of a county highway superintendent shall be optional, was approved 18-12.

Similarly advanced was LB 534, providing that when a person holding an office created by the Legislature files for another office, the post held becomes vacant.

Dallas Suffers New Anguish From Raging Thunderstorms

DALLAS (AP) — Dallas suffered new anguish from raging thunderstorms and twister threats Wednesday after Tuesday's tornado which killed 10 persons and laid waste to 60 blocks—the worst destruction in the city's history.

Near 200 persons were treated at hospitals for injuries.

The tornado was part of a storm wave which swept across Texas and Oklahoma killing 17. A tornado killed one man in the northeast Texas community of Ben Franklin, and other twisters took six lives in Oklahoma—three at Little City, two at Durant and one near Ardmore.

Other tornadoes, rumors of tornadoes and windstorms swept east Texas Wednesday. A damaged gym roof and a damaged farm house and barn south of Center, in Shelby County, was the only major damage. No one was injured.

Severe weather warnings expired with no further violent weather reported.

Flood Threat

A threat of floods hung over southern and eastern Oklahoma. Widespread rains, measuring up to 4½ inches, sent creeks and rivers out of their banks in some areas.

Wednesday a tornado ripped a third of the gymnasium roof off the Little Cypress school in deep southeast Texas near Orange, but none of the 800 students was injured.

Other tornadoes, rumors of tornadoes, and windstorms swept east Texas, but there were no immediate reports of deaths or major damage.

Sodden survivors of the Dallas storm slogged through rain and mush trying to salvage a few possessions from their destroyed homes.

At least 500 persons had no place to live Wednesday except in relief shelters or with friends or relatives.

$4 Million

Deputy Police Chief O. P. Wright estimated Dallas damage at four million dollars. "The damage just cannot be less," he said.

At least 500 homes were destroyed or damaged.

The federal government declared Dallas County a disaster area, eligible for low-interest loans for rehabilitation.

Milton Hilliard, 2, died in a hospital Wednesday of tornado injuries to become the 10th fatality.

The twister, striking first about 4:30 p.m. (CST) and ripping a 21-mile path through the city, knocked out electricity in 75,000 homes and put 4,000 telephones out of commission. The utilities damage was rapidly repaired.

A slashing thunderstorm struck the city before dawn Wednesday, and others struck later.

Kentucky Hit

BOWLING GREEN, Ky (AP) — Tornadic winds and severe thunderstorms lashed widespread portions of rural western Kentucky Wednesday night. Houses were unroofed, barns toppled and a drive-in motion picture screen destroyed in one area.

No injuries were reported as the winds skipped from one area to another.

State Police district headquarters here reported a small twister struck about eight miles south of Bowling Green and headed southwest along U.S. Highway 31-W toward Franklin near the Tennessee border. No damage was reported.

At least six barns were toppled in the Bandana section of Ballard County in far western Kentucky. Several houses were unroofed in that dairy farm section.

11-40 Dead In Chilean Rioting

SANTIAGO, Chile (AP)—Bursts of machinegun fire were heard in parts of Santiago Wednesday night. Until then an uneasy calm had settled over the capital after a night and a day of frenzied rioting against inflation.

During daylight hours police and troops clashed repeatedly with mobs rampaging through the heart of the city to protest soaring living costs.

There were conflicting reports of the number of dead, ranging from 11 to 40 and of injured from 165 to 350.

Property damage was estimated in excess of two million dollars.

It was the most serious outbreak President Carlos Ibanez, now 79, has faced since rioters turned him out of office in his first term 26 years ago.

Defying emergency military law clamped on the entire nation, truckloads of rioters from the outlying poorer sections joined in the demonstrations to complain of a new spurt in the inflation spiral which has gone steadily upward in Chile since World War II.

About 1,000 Chileans attacked police and army troops and tried to storm the Pan American Bank but were driven off after troops opened fire.

In the face of more gunfire, the mobs stoned the presidential palace, the court of justice, the capitol building and other buildings.

Army machine gunners, tanks and armored cars fired repeatedly on thousands of rioters when the outburst here reached a peak of violence Tuesday night.

President Ibanez then proclaimed a state of siege—a form of martial law—and warned the nation's six million people he stands for "energetic use of arms, whatever the consequences," to put down the violence. The government decree blamed the rioting on international Communism and lawless groups seeking to damage the economy.

Rites Thursday For Ex-Court Justice Leonard Flansburg

Funeral services for Leonard A. Flansburg, 72, former Nebraska Supreme Court justice and prominent Lincoln attorney, will be held 3:30 p.m. Thursday at the First Presbyterian Church.

Dr. C. Vin White will officiate. Burial will be in Wyuka.

NU Students Get Third In Debate

University of Nebraska students took third place at the annual Missouri Valley Conference, attended by 10 midwestern schools and held at Kansas State College.

Two Nebraska debate teams won eight matches and lost four, for third place.

The team of Nancy Copeland of Norfolk and Jerre McGaffey of Nebraska City, defeated Oklahoma, Texas, Colorado, and Louisiana State Universities and lost to Iowa State College and Kansas University.

The team of Barbara Bacon of Kearney and Sandra Reimers of Lincoln, defeated Texas, South Dakota, Kansas, and Colorado Universities and lost to Kansas State College and Oklahoma University.

Both Nebraska teams defeated Texas which won second place in the tournament, and split with Oklahoma University, conference winner.

In oratory, Sara Jones of Lincoln won third place, and in extemporaneous speaking, McGaffey also won third place.

Beck Defense Is Invited By AFL And CIO

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Teamsters union was invited Wednesday to defend itself against corruption charges at an AFL-CIO hearing May 6. Al Hayes, chairman of the AFL-CIO Ethical Practices Committee, said the teamsters were entitled to a hearing and would be given one if it were the wish of the union's officers.

Last Friday the AFL-CIO Executive Council ordered a broad investigation of the union on the basis of derogatory information turned up by Senate rackets probers.

The council acted under an AFL-CIO constitutional provision empowering it to investigate any member union alleged to be dominated by "any corrupt influence."

Any housecleaning operation could include the ouster of Dave Beck, 62-year-old president of the teamsters, who took the Fifth Amendment when questioned by the Senate investigators last month. Beck claimed any answers might tend to incriminate him.

5 Dead, 400 Hurt In Blast

RIO DE JANEIRO, Brazil (AP) — Lightning struck a firecracker storage warehouse Wednesday and caused a blast that levelled a shanty home area three miles wide.

At least 5 persons were killed and more than 400 injured.

The blast rocked the countryside around Duque de Caxias, a factory town 15 miles south of here. The warehouse was in a marshy area on the outskirts of the town where thousands live in makeshift shanties.

Hundreds of shacks were destroyed.

Police said the warehouse was owned by a Pernambuco fireworks manufacturer. The warehouse manager and employes told police only about $100 worth of firecrackers was stored there but the force of the blast indicated there were more, police said.

AG COMMITTEE CLEARS SLATE OF BUSINESS

The Legislature's Agriculture Committee cleared up the last of its assigned business Tuesday by killing LB 593, a measure which would have regulated commercial poultry processing.

The bill had been introduced by the Public Health Committee as a substitute for LB 355, a similar bill which reached the general file category on the floor and then was withdrawn.

LB 393 would have provided for the licensing of poultry processers, the prohibition of placing "adulterated or misbranded poultry" on the market and the regulation of sanitary conditions in poultry processing.

The bill had drawn considerable opposition from small operators at its public hearing earler.

IKE GETS IN A ROUND OF GOLF

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower went golfing Wednesday at his favorite local course for the first time since last fall.

The President went to Burning Tree Club in nearby Maryland shortly after lunch.

It was his first regular round since he played at Thomasville, Ga., in February.

Eisenhower, who has been fighting a stubborn cough since January, expressed the hope a week ago that he would be able to get a little more sun soon.

Wednesday's pleasant spring weather, with the temperature in the 60s, provided an opportunity.

State Enjoined From Prohibiting Seed Label Use

The Nebraska Department of Agriculture and Inspection has been temporarily enjoined from prohibiting use of a certain warranty label by United Seed Inc., a Delaware corporation operating in Nebraska.

Lancaster District Judge Paul White issued the temporary injunction against the state department and its officials.

United Seeds had been notified Feb. 27 that the department intended to forbid the sale of all seeds so labeled by the warranty, which the department contends violates the Nebraska seed law.

Last September, the agricultural department refused to approve the label containing this wording: "United Seeds Inc. warrant to the extent of the purchase price that the seeds or bulbs sold as described on container within recognized tolerances. Seller gives no other or further warranty, expressed or implied."

3 More Polio Cases Noted

Three new cases of polio were reported in Nebraska during the past week, bringing to 20 the number reported to date for the year, the State Health Department reported Tuesday.

Of the three cases, two were reported as "unspecified," one each in Adams and Kimball Counties, and the third in Dodge County was reported as "non-paralytic."

At this time last year there had been only two cases of polio reported in the state, the Department said.

Pen Gets More Canning Equipment

A piece of equipment which will increase the canning activities of the Prison Industries at the Nebraska Penitentiary has been purchased by the Board of Control.

The root vegetable steamer and peeler was purchased for $2,000 on a buying trip made to the southern states by Board of Control Administrative Assistant Harold Peterson, State Purchasing Agent Tom Coffey and Gov. Anderson's Administrative Assistant A. E. Eichberg.

Peterson said the canning equipment would have cost $5,600 new, but this peeler had been used for 1½ seasons by a canning company which found it not large enough for its operation. He said it was "just the right size" (200 pounds per minute) for the prison cannery.

The state officials also visited textile mills in North Carolina, South Carolina and Georgia with reference to their bidding on the state's needs for cotton goods.

Nebraska purchases about 24,000 sheets and pillow cases, and approximately a quarter of a million yards of cotton piece goods used by the Nebraska Prison Industries for making various types of clothing for the institutions.

Peterson said that with the volume of material purchased by the state, the state may be able to save from $10,000 to $15,000 on this amount of purchase by buying direct from mills.

The Board of Control representatives also checked into the produce markets of Tennessee, Louisiana and Texas to see what produce could be used during season at the various institutions and during the winter months in canning operations at the Penitentiary.

LAFB HAS $4,500 FOR NURSERY

Some $4,500 was collected for a nursery at the Lincoln Air Force Base during a recent donation drive, the nursery council announced.

Plans include interior decoration, fencing, playground equipment, miscellaneous nursery equipment, uniforms for attendants, equipment for teen-age facilities adjacent to the nursery operation, the council said.

Interior modifications have been completed in the old Officers' Club for the nursery.

The nursery will be operated six days a week, and until 1 a.m. Sunday.

This schedule will undergo a 60-day trial period.

"There are no plans for wives' clubs to shoulder any future responsibility of operating the nursery or in regard to any future incurred financial burden," Chaplain Maj. Vernon F. Kullowatz, president of the nursery council, said.

Martin Uses Pardon To Aid Airman; All Officials Recommended Action

Mayor Bennett Martin has exercised his power of pardon and remitted a fine and court costs assessed against a Lincoln Base airman on a charge of driving without a license.

The airman, with the pardoned offense, would have had an accumulation of 13 traffic violation points and would thus have lost his drivers license for one year. The pardon, however, removed the two points accumulated with the last charge and the airman's license was restored.

Martin said he approved the pardon and remission of the $1 fine and $3.60 cost on recommendation of Welfare and Safety Director Emmett Junge and City Attorney Jack Pace.

Pace explained the action was recommended because the penalty of loss of the driver's license was not commensurate with the offense of driving without a license.

Three points had been accumulated for a 1955 speeding case, six points for a 1955 negligent driving charge and two points for a 1955 charge of driving on an expired license. Pace pointed out that negligent driving now carries only a three point penalty.

"New Tablet Relieves Painful Monthly Cramps... Brought Me Greater Relief Than Aspirin!"

"Couldn't sleep, was all on edge, could hardly put up with my 2 babies," adds Mrs. H. Y., Russell, Ky. "But Pinkham's Tablets were a real blessing! Gave soothing relief the first day!"

Model Photo

For millions of women who suffer tortures of cramps and nervous tension every month, a new day has dawned! An amazing new tablet, developed especially to relieve this female discomfort, brings greater relief than aspirin for these miseries!

Relief for 3 out of 4 tested!

Doctors report amazing results. For 3 out of 4 women tested, pains and cramps were stopped or strikingly relieved. Even on the first day, many had no nagging headaches, backaches, other functional distress. Were less jittery before their period.

This new discovery offers more relief than aspirin because it contains not just 1 or 2 ingredients but a unique combination of medicines. Unlike "general purpose" remedies, it acts on the cause of distress. Has remarkable power to calm uterine contractions; also works through a woman's sympathetic nervous system.

Called "Lydia Pinkham's Tablets," they're at all drugstores without prescription. Try handy Pinkham's Tablets. See if you don't feel worlds better! See if you don't escape much of the irritability and discomfort—before and during those "difficult days." (Also liquid Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.)

NU Regent's Statement On Faculty Salaries 'Astounds' Sen. Carpenter

By ROY CAMPBELL
Star Staff Writer

State Sen. Terry Carpenter told the Legislature Wednesday he was "concerned and astounded" by statements from a University of Nebraska regent concerning salaries at the institution.

The statement was attributed to Regent C. Y. Thompson of West Point, who, according to Carpenter, was quoted as saying "People want to go somewhere where the salary does not depend on the whims of the Legislature."

Digressing into a semantics discussion of "whim," Carpenter said the word denoted a "certain turn or start of the mind." Synonyms, he said, are "caprice, fanciful, wayward, freak and notion."

The regents, Sen. Carpenter said, "should not put themselves in a position of casting reflections on (the Budget Committee) until (the regents) know as much as we do."

No Statue

Carpenter said he knows "no one will erect a statue to the Budget Committee for their liberality."

Regent Thompson made his statement during a meeting of the Board of Regents, in connection with a reported "20 per cent turnover" in faculty in less than three years at the institution.

Sen. Carpenter told the legislators he doubted that the turnover was "any greater" than anywhere else. The regents, though, he said, were casting a "very undesirable reflection" on the budget group.

The University twice was heard before the budget Committee. The University request was for $23 million for operation during the next two years This is $5.5 million more than the appropriation for the present biennium.

'Unfair'

"I think I can say the University has been unfair," Carpenter said. He added he thought there was "enough fat" in the University budget to take care of the salary problems.

The chancellor has asked a general salary increase of 14 per cent for present administrative and academic personnel. This is contained in a $2.4 million additional request in the proposed budget.

Sen. Carpenter concluded the University "is trying to confuse this Legislature by beating us over the head."

Another 'Dig'

The University also took a dig from Sens. Hans O. Jensen of Aurora who stated the "trouble is not all financial." He mentioned the case of Dr. Clyde Mitchell, former Agriculture College professor, who, the senator said, "was forced out" of the institution.

Dr. Mitchell was removed as chairman of the department of agricultural economics and resigned as professor to accept his present post with the United Nations Food and Agriculture Organization in Mexico.

A University faculty committee is investigating the circumstances of Dr. Mitchell's removal as department chairman.

THOMPSON: 'WE CAN'T LET NU GO BACKWARD'

University Regent C. Y. Thompson, commenting Wednesday on Sen. Terry Carpenter's statements, said: "We cannot allow the University to go backward just because we had a few dry years."

Thompson had drawn fire from Carpenter for saying, at a regents meeting Tuesday, that some faculty members have left the University because they want to go where their salaries do not depend "on the whims of the Legislature."

Thompson said Wednesday:

"The Board of Regents has men of high standing, who are taxpayers and have business experience. We gave them (the legislators) what we thought was a fair and honest budget.

"If the chancellor has not been able to give them the information (they want), it is because they have not asked for it.

"We need a broader tax base. We cannot run an organization like the University on wet and dry budgets. Every other state is smart enough to do something about it."

House Votes To Cut 6 Per Cent From $3 Billion Labor, Welfare Budgets

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House voted Wesnesday to cut approximately 6 per cent from the almost three billion dollars President Eisenhower asked in new money for the Labor and Welfare Departments.

The appropriations it settled on —subject to roll call votes Thursday that could change the figures —were:

Labor Department — $348,893,200, a cut of $35,784,800 from White House requests.

Welfare Department — $2,430,727,581, or $151,387,000 under Eisenhower's budget figures.

Thus the total voted by the House to operate these departments, and related agencies, for the fiscal year beginning July 1 was $2,779,620,781, or $137,171,800 less than Eisenhower asked.

In one important standing vote Wednesday, 162-140, the House voted to knock out the entire 50 million dollars asked for continuation of federal aid to municipalities for construction of sewage treatment plants.

Difference

Also Wednesday, there was an intra-administration difference of opinion on how much the President's total $71,800,000,000 budget might, or should be cut.

Eisenhower himself told his news conference he didn't think there could be a substantial cut of, say two billion dollars.

At about the same time, Under Secretary of the Treasury Randolph Burgess was telling senators he believed it would be "a sound thing" to cut the budget by two or three billion dollars.

Burgess, appearing before the Senate Finance Committee, said his thought on the matter was "a very personal opinion."

White House press secretary James C. Hagerty was asked whether Eisenhower was aware of Burgess' remark. Hagerty said he didn't think so, and added:

"I would just reverse that question and ask if Mr Burgess heard the President's press conference."

What Eisenhower said was:

"I don't anticipate any changes in terms of amounts big enough to, to be, let's say, startling. I am not thinking in terms of two billion dollars for example."

'Illiterate'

The Eisenhower spending plans won outspoken support from Sen. Clark (D-Pa), speaking to a meeting of the Rubber Workers Union.

Clark said anyone who contends the nation can not afford to spend $71,800,000,000 in one year on its federal government is an "economic illiterate."

He also said expenditures must be maintained if "we are to stay strong abroad and continue to make social progress toward fulfilling the American dream at home."

In another development Sen. Byrd (D-Va) proposed that Congress each year fix figures limiting the amount the government may spend from both past and current appropriations. Byrd contends that Congress has lost control of the money it appropriates, by authorizing spending for years ahead.

Museum Bill Passes 42-0

The Legislature Wednesday gave 42-0 approval to a bill providing for establishment of city, county or township museums where local groups want them.

The measure, LB 108, also provides for levy of a tax for museum purposes. It carries the emergency clause, so that it would become law immediately if signed by the governor.

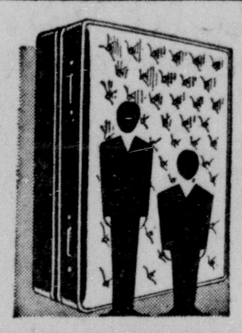

Delehant Denies Writ Application Of Prison Inmate

Federal Judge John W. Delehant has denied the application of Howard D. Mitchell, Nebraska Penitentiary, for a writ of habeas corpus.

The judge ruled Mitchell has not exhausted all existing state remedies in his claim that a copy of his committment to the prison was not certified as required by law.

Mitchell was convicted in Box Butte District Court in June, 1951, on a charge of obtaining money and property under false pretenses and was sentenced to 12 years as a habitual criminal.

The 65-year-old inmate from Sidney has filed numerous writs in various courts during the past several years.

There's News To Be Told

BETROTHAL NEWS

MISS MURIEL PICKETT

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Pickett of Schuyler this morning are announcing the betrothal of their daughter, Muriel Linnea, to Dr. Ernest E. Johnson, son of Mrs. E. B. Johnson of Holdrege.

A graduate of the University of Nebraska, the bride-elect is a member of Pi Beta Phi sorority, Sigma Alpha Iota national music sorority and of Mortar Board honor society for senior women. She currently is serving as stewardess with United Air Lines and resides in New York City.

Dr. Johnson is a graduate of the University of Nebraska and of the University's College of Medicine in Omaha. He is a member of Beta Theta Pi fraternity and Innocents senior honorary, and of Phi Rho Sigma medical fraternity. Dr. Johnson is interning at Temple University Hospital in Philadelphia.

Plans are being made for a summer wedding.

THERE'S news to be told this morning, and since we seem a wee bit crowded we'll begin the business of telling what we know — We might mention that there's exciting news in the way of a betrothal coming up one of these days — When we're given the word we'll pass it along.

Understand that Mr. and Mrs. J. Leslie Grainger, who have been spending the past few weeks as the guests of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. William H. Browne, Jr., will leave on Friday to return to their home in Salinas, Calif.

* * *

MENTION of Mr. and Mrs. Browne, Jr., reminds us that Mr. and Mrs. Browne, Sr., were a dinner host and hostess on Tuesday evening when they entertained at the Lincoln Country Club. The party honoree was their son-in-law, Charles Thorne, who was celebrating his birthday anniversary. The guest list included only members of the family.

* * *

WHEN Mrs. George L. Towne entertains a small group of guests at a tea next Thursday afternoon it will be in prenuptial courtesy to her granddaughter, Miss Marilyn Towne, whose marriage to Joseph Wachter is planned for May.

* * *

SOMEONE told us that Mrs. Willard Yates would be arriving next Tuesday from Carmel, Calif., to spend some time in Lincoln. During her stay in town Mrs. Yates will visit her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Burnham Yates, and her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. George Holmes.

* * *

AT their last dinner dance of the season, held on Monday evening at Hotel Cornhusker, the members of the Colonial Dancing Club elected new officers for the coming year. Dr. and Mrs. Steven Watkins were named to the presidency, and serving on the board of directors will be Mr. and Mrs. Fred Johnston, Dr. and Mrs. Glenn R. Johnston, Dr. and Mrs. Ralph McGoogan, Dr. and Mrs. Edward Stika, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Moreland, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Parker and Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Pauley.

THE STAR IN SUBURBIA

There is no better way to become acquainted with interesting people than to take a trek through the suburbs in the community. Rain or shine, they always are in line — for news, that is! And Eastborough residents never cease to highlight each week with bits of chatter over coffee, entertainment at dinner and bridge, or a gathering of ladies for a bowling game.

The Eastborough Bowling League had an exciting evening last Friday. After the team completed its game the members were entertained for coffee and an informal visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs.Wayne Price. Members of the bowling league are Mrs. Lee Knopp, Mrs. Al Wertz, Mrs.Delos Moulton, Mrs. Lewis Malinowski and Mrs. James Farkas.

A farewell courtesy was extended by Mr. and Mrs. James Farkas, and their sons, Jeff and Jimmy, last Friday evening when they were hosts and hostess at a dinner for Mrs. Farkas' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Parkins. Guests, in addition to Mr. and Mrs. Parkins were Mrs. Farkas' brother-in-law and sisters, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Malinowski and their daughter Laurie, and Mrs. Delos Moulton, and her daughters Kathy and Mary Jo. Mr. and Mrs. Parkins, who have resided here since Thanksgiving, recently returned to their former home in Grafton, N.D.

There is nothing quite like an evening coffee, especially when it happens to be a gathering of busy young matrons relaxing for an informal chat. When Mrs. Reg Davies was hostess at such an affair last Thursday evening, her guests were Mrs. Lee Knopp, Mrs. Dale Dreeszen, Mrs. Robert Morgan, Mrs. Robert Harrington and Mrs. W. L. Crouse.

On Saturday afternoon the second organizational meeting of the Eastborough Cub Scouts, Den 3 met at the home of Mrs. Mark LaPointe. The boys began constructing their kites for the kite-flying contest which will be next Saturday or Sunday. The members also discussed the Boy Scout Circus which will be an event in May. Cut Scout members are Philip Brown, George Harvey, James Seeward, Kenneth Bell and Brice Burtch.

Mention of the Cub Scouts reminds us of another group of youngsters in the community who are very active. A gathering of Blue Birds was on the calendar Tuesday at Meadow Lane School. Members of the group from Eastborough and Meadow Lane met with several of their mothers for an organizational meeting. The girls will not meet regularly until September.

A visitor in Eastborough is Mrs. Hilda Gormer who is making an extended visit at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Luttrell, Randy and Tamra. Mrs. Gormer, who arrived on March 11, will return to her home in Cumberland, Md., on April 22.

NFWC CONVENTION CHORUS

A highlight of the banquet program Wednesday evening at the annual state convention of the Nebraska Federation of Women's Clubs was a program of songs by the state women's clubs chorus, composed of club members who rehearsed together for the first time on Tuesday afternoon.

Directed by Dr. David Foltz of the University of Nebraska music department (whose hands can be seen at left), the chorus members include (front row, left to right) Mrs. John Osborn, Omaha; Mrs. W. S. Mollring, Holbrook; Mrs. Jay Dunlap, Mrs. Richard Stauffer and Mrs. Elwood Hershberger, all of Milford; Mrs. Walter Kirchhefer, Sutton, Fifth District director; Mrs Charles Evans, Albion; Mrs. John Perkins, Fremont; and Mrs. Lawrence Alt, Trenton.

Plans for the chorus's convention program were under the direction of Mrs. John W. Coffey of Fremont, state music chairman.

TO BE JUNE BRIDE

MISS JANE FENTON

Of interest to numerous Lincoln people this morning is the announcement made by Col. and Mrs. Bryan Coleman Fenton of Arlington, Va., of the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Jane, to Cadet Theodore Dotzler Felber, son of Col. and Mrs. Joseph George Felber of Camp Drum, N. Y.

A late June wedding is planned.

Miss Fenton is the granddaughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. McLaughin [illegible] Warden and Mrs. W. T. Fenton, all of Lincoln.

The bride-elect attended the University of Texas where she is a member of Alpha Chi Omega sorority.

Cadet Felber will be graduated in June from the United States Military Academy at West Point, N. Y.

Sorority State Day

Active and alumnae members of Alpha Xi Delta will hold their annual State Day program on Sunday beginning with a dinner at 12:30 o'clock in the Terrace Room of the Lincoln Hotel.

Mrs. Del Lienemann will be the toastmistress and presiding at the State Day meeting, during which awards will be presented to members of the active chapter, will be Mrs. Ralf Holmes, Lincoln alumnae president.

Special guests will be Mrs. Olen Brake of Beatrice, fourth vice president of the national sorority, and Miss Dorothy Swinney of Wichita, Kan., province president.

Program chairman is Miss Katherine Schultz who is assisted by Mrs. Del Lienemann, Mrs. W. K. Harding, Mrs. Calvin Dale and Mrs. R. B. Lohse.

Postponed

Due to lack of parking space caused by the recent snow, the open house planned by the Rev. and Mrs. Verne A. Spindell for Sunday afternoon March 31, at their home on Twin Ridge Rd., has been postponed until Sunday, April 28.

PAST PRESIDENTS HONORED

Past presidents of the Nebraska Federation of Women's Clubs were especially honored on Wednesday at the organization's annual state convention in Lincoln when they were guests at luncheon at the Hotel Cornhusker.

Mrs. W. E. Minier of Omaha, president of the state federation in 1926-27, presided at the luncheon. Seated (from the left) are Mrs. William H. Hasebroock of West Point, chairman of fine arts of the General Federation and past president of the Nebraska Federation; Mrs. Roy Magill, Holdrege, current president; Miss Chloe Gifford, Lexington, Ky., first vice president of the General Federation; and Mrs. Minier.

Other past state presidents unable to attend the convention are Mrs. C. R. Caley, Clarks; Mrs. Walter Kiechel, Tecumseh; Mrs. Fred H. Barmore, Lexington; Mrs. J. L. Vandenberg, Boulder, Colo.; and Mrs. Bilse Robinson, Albion.

PLANNING A NEW SEASON

April showers, allegedly will bring May flowers. With the flowers, it is hoped, will come balmy weather and good golfing.

The members of the Women's State Tournament committee are not looking forward to the May flowers—As a matter of fact they are skipping May completely and on Wednesday afternoon turned their attention to June 24—the opening of the Nebraska State Golf Tournament for women which is to be played at Hillcrest from June 24, through June 29.

The committee, which held a luncheon meeting at Hillcrest Country Club yesterday, includes:

BRIDES

Miss Winifred Stolz, whose marriage to James Moss of Denver, Colo. will be an event of Saturday, April 6, returned to Lincoln from Denver on Wednesday. Miss Stolz has been careering in Denver this past year and before her return home was honored at several showers.

On March 26, Miss Carol Gene Orput was hostess to college classmates of the bride-elect who are residing in Denver. During the dessert supper and informal evening, a hostess gift was presented to Miss Stolz.

Honoring Miss Stolz on Friday, March 8, were her roommates, Miss Mary Lou Young, Miss Ruth Randolph, and Miss Sharon Kreuch. Guests invited for the dessert supper and miscellaneous shower were former residents of Lincoln.

Miss Stolz has named Mrs. Brock Dutton of Glendale, Ariz. as her matron of honor, and the bridesmaids will be Miss Sharon Kreuch, Miss Mary Lou Young, and Miss Sue Moss of Omaha, sister of the bridegroom-elect. Miss Patti Neet will be the junior bridesmaid, and Miss Ruth Randolph will light the candles for the evening ceremony, which will be solemnized at Trinity Lutheran Church. The flower girl will be Miss Mary Beth Moss, of Omaha, sister of the bridegroom, and Timothy Stolz, brother of the bride-to-be, will be the ring bearer.

Serving Mr. Moss as best man will be Gene Stephens, and the ushers will be Rudolph Stolz, Richard Haigh of Denver, and Norman Larson of Omaha.

Navy Wives Hold Meeting

Members of the Stem To Stern Club, an organization for Navy and Marine wives, met Tuesday evening at the Officers Club at the Lincoln Naval Air Station. The evening hours were spent informally and a guest of the group was Mrs. George Andrews.

Papillion, $26,000 swimming pool proposal.
Wahoo, $150,000 municipal building.
Fairmont, $35,000 municipal building.
Wymore, $80,000 community building.

Authorities Say Junkman Will Face Charges

OMAHA (AP) — Two charges that could bring prison terms of as much as 23 years will be filed against Otto Glaser, the junkman who admitted a part in the accidental electrocution of Donald Marfisi, 17, County Attorney Eugene Fitzgerald said Wednesday.

The county attorney said he would charge Glaser with abandoning a dead body without regular burial and with being an habitual criminal.

The first charge is a felony which carries a penalty of one to three years and-or a fine of up to $2,500.

The habitual criminal charge carries a term of 10 to 20 years if a defendant has two felony convictions.

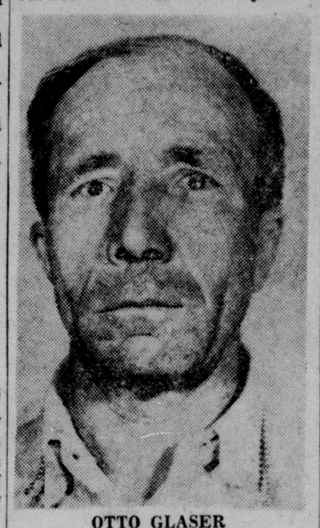

Glaser's police record has 22 entries dating back to 1921. He served prison terms for burglary in 1924, 1931 and 1935 and jail sentences for larceny, receiving stolen property, assault and battery and vagrancy.

Glaser admitted he sent the Marfisi youth up a power pole two miles west of Bennington in an attempt to steal copper wire. The youth touched an 8,000-volt Omaha Public Power District line and was killed.

When the youth's body was found with one hand severed, County Coroner George Sullivan said it appeared he had been burned with a blow torch or acetylene torch.

But the nature of the burns led authorities to probe further and medical experts determined the cause of death was electrocution.

Detectives questioned Glaser further and detective inspector Brown said Glaser admitted he had been using the boy for about three weeks in a series of copper wire thefts, and told police how young Marfisi died.

Grand Jury Probe Set On Tax Laxity Charge

ALBION, Neb. (AP) — Charges of tax collection laxity in Boone County will be investigated by a grand jury.

District Court Judges R. A. Robinson of Fremont, and R. D. Flory of Columbus, issued the formal call of the grand jury investigation.

It is the outgrowth of a petition signed by Jack Lough, Albion newspaper editor, and 98 others.

The petition asked that the jury be called to probe alleged failure of Frank B. Smith, Sam Tishammer and John Krause, county commissioners in September, 1955, to call a public hearing on allegations of wilful neglect of duty on the part of Sheriff Bernard L. Illian.

The petition contended the sheriff did not make proper returns on personal tax distress warrants issued prior to Oct. 1, 1954.

The petition also asked that the grand jury be instructed to investigate "any other matters" as might properly come before the group.

Judges Robinson and Flory named Sigurd C. Robinson, a farmer of Cedar Rapids, as foreman to notify the governor who will name a special prosecutor to replace the Boone County attorney in all matters relative to acts of the county commissioners.

Handball Court Keeps Pius Athletes, Instructors Trim

By BOB McCOY
Star Sports Staff Writer

If the winter layoff from golf, water polo, skin-diving or whatever your sport may be has increased the tension on that strap of leather which circumscribes your waistline, Pius X High School may be your next stop.

Now Pius doesn't advocate a method of taking vast numbers of reducing capsules. You won't even have to enroll in an extension course in calculus in order to count calories effectively. And you won't have to cut down on your eating, either. In fact, your appetite might increase.

To describe it simply, Pius X's only reducing medium is a handball court. And it's been working wonders in keeping Pius athletes in shape besides keeping the school's faculty trim.

When the court was first completed last fall (as part of the gymnasium in the new school building), many heads were turned on it as a "white elephant."

But school principal Father Dan Kealy soon handled the job of straightening the stiff necks which had developed.

Interest was developed among Pius X athletes, who also were a little leery of the set-up's function at first, and then the faculty — namely Coach Vince Aldrich — got into the act.

Before long Father Kealy's handball room blossomed into one of the busiest in the building and interest is still mounting.

Pius X is currently engaged in an intramural handball tourney with some 24 students taking an active part.

Take it from Vince, who coaches football, basketball and track at Pius, "handball is a wonderful game for increasing a person's agility and body reactions besides developing co-ordination in his hands — and keeping the tummy trim." Father Kealy is the first to agree with Vince.

So, thanks to Father Kealy, who developed the idea of creating a handball room out of what was destined to be equipment storage space, Pius X now can enjoy one of the better games for developing reactions and keeping excess pounds from accumulating.

The court even has some what of a historical background in the way of championships. For Everett Kingery, head of the Kingery Construction Co. which built the school, is a former state handball champion when such a title was recognized. And Father Kealy who brought handball to Pius, is one of the game's top promoters in this area.

So, if you've been bothered by the sagging paunch dilemma or the office chair spread, cheer up. Try handball. It might be just the spring tonic you need.

Royals To Play In Cincinnati

ROCHESTER, N.Y. (AP) — The Rochester Royals of the National Basketball Assn. Wednesday became the Cincinnati Royals as Les and Jack Harrison announced they would take the club west in the fall.

"We hate to leave Rochester," the Harrisons said, "but the NBA trend is toward bigger cities."

The Royals will play their home games next season in the Cincinnati Garden, a modern 14,000-seat arena built since World War II. They will abandon the two-year-old Rochester War Memorial, also a first class house but with a capacity of well under 10,000.

The Royals thus become the second NBA club to announce a change of home base for 1957-58. The Ft. Wayne Pistons will switch to Detroit.

Wednesday's announcement by the Harrisons, co-owners of the Rochester franchise, ended a month of apparently frantic maneuvering. The club was placed on the block with a $240,000 price tag at the end of the season.

It is believed that at least two firm offers were made—one from former Chicago White Sox Manager Marty Marion and another from a Cincinnati group headed by Robert Siegel. Ultimately, Les took the club off the market and switched to a search for a new home.

Les and Jack said Wednesday they had considered moving to Cleveland, Ft. Wayne to replace the Pistons) and Chicago. But the most favorable arrangement, they said, could be made in Cincinnati.

Economics dictated the move, said the Harrisons, who organized the Royals in 1945.

"Our losses this season will amount to $25,000," they said, "and it was the seventh consecutive year of losing money.

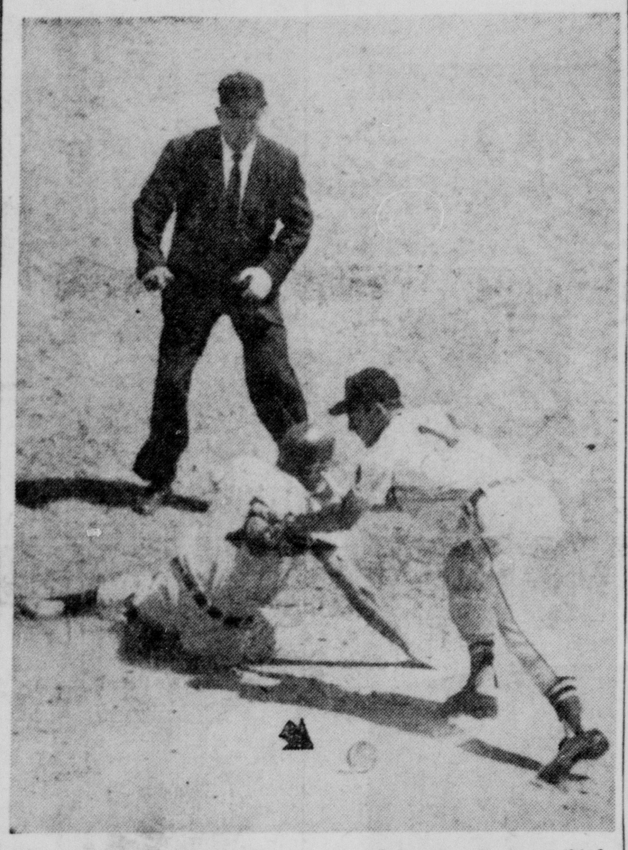

"We had decided to sell to Rochester interests if the team could be kept here, but no concrete offer was forthcoming."

They said their population area in Cincinnati would be about 1½ million people. The Census Bureau lists Cincinnati's metropolitan population as about a million, compared with Rochester's 500,000.

The Royals are youthful. They made a stir in the early weeks of the past season, but faltered and finished last in the Western Division.

The coach is Bobby Wanzer, long-time court star. Top scorer is Maurice Stokes. The Royals also will offer Cincinnati fans an attractive home combination of Jack Twyman from the University of Cincinnati and Dave Piontek from Xavier of Cincinnati.

WHOOPS!

Harvey Kuenn, Detroit Tiger shortstop, is safe getting back to third base after the St. Louis Cardinals caught him in a rundown between home and third in the first inning of an exhibition baseball game at St. Petersburg, Fla. Wednesday. Kuenn broke from third as Ray Boone grounded to Ken Boyer at third. Boyer threw to home and here makes the tag on Kuenn after getting the throw back from his catcher Hobie Landrith. But Boyer dropped the ball and Kuenn crawled back safely. Umpire Ed Hurley watches the play. (AP Wirephoto).

Fire Kills 27 Horses At Toledo Race Track

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP) — A raging fires destroyed a barn and killed 27 running horses at Fort Miami Raceway Wednesday, the second day of the track's 44-day spring season.

Sixty other horses, released from other barns threatened by the fire, scattered throughout the area, one turning up on the Ohio Turnpike.

Many of these exhausted themselves and were unable to participate in the races which went off on schedule Wednesday afternoon.

A track official said the fire could have been caused by an over-loaded electrical circuit, but Melvin Fall, chief of the Adams Township No. 3 Fire Department said he had not determined the cause.

Ralph Parachek, operator of the track, estimated the loss of barn and equipment at $10,000. Estimates of the worth of the horses varied up to $100,000.

Parachek said the barns and the horses were covered by insurance.

A passing motorist first saw the blaze and gave the alarm. By the time firemen had arrived, track employes had organized a bucket brigade and were trying in vain to save some of the horses in the flaming barns.

As fast as the employes would get an animal out of the building, it would turn in panic and run back in.

Fearing the fire would spread, employes released 60 horses from other barns.

These animals, terrorized by the screams of the dying horses in Barn "D" and by the heat and flames, galloped in confusion around the scene.

Some got off the grounds when the gates were opened to admit fire-fighting equipment.

Fort Miami, at the insistence of the Ohio Racing Commission, had recently completed an extensive remodeling program. The project included some new buildings and redecorating of the grandstand. None of these structures was damaged.

The dead horses were Great Gun, Market Miss, Fortnight and Apache Lady, all owned by W. J. Tufts; Suspenders, Just Mamie Mamie and Blue Quail, owned by J. Braunstein; Slam Slam, Pris, French Rocket and U. S. Knight, owned by A. M. Donafrio; Kee War, owned by Victor Vadalamenti; Frantasque, Wanna Start and Lady Altmar, owned by A. Frankina; Muzz Duzz, Flying Even and Thundergust, owned by Frank Guciardo; Elective and Muharram, owned by R. W. Anderson; Buzzards Bay and Count Coin, owned by L. DUPAS IN 'FIGHTING MOOD' FOR MARTINEZ

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Ralph Dupas, winner of a decision by the Louisiana State Athletic Commission, resumed training Wednesday "in a fighting mood" for his bout here with Vince Martinez.

The commission, after two hearings into the racial background of the speedy New Orleans lightweight, said Tuesday night it saw no reason to ban the scheduled April 8 ten-rounder with the Paterson, N.J., welterweight.

The hearings were held after Mrs. Lucretia Gravolet of Plaquemines Parish, La., and others said Dupas had Negro parents. Louisiana law bans mixed matches.

After Dupas worked out Wednesday his manager, Whitey Esenault, said he had never seen Dupas in more of a fighting mood.

"He's getting a bit cranky, which as a good sign this will be one of his best fights," Esenault added.

Martinez looked fair in a five-round workout with sparring partners.

The commission announcement boomed ticket sales. Promoter Heard Ragas, hoping for a $50,000 gate, said the advance sale had gone over $25,000.

Braves, Brooks Battle To 2-2 Tie After 10 Exhibition Innings

Newcombe Homers For First Bum Run

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP)—The Milwaukee Braves and the Brooklyn Dodgers played to a 2-2 tie Wednesday in a game called after 10 innings to permit the clubs to make an early departure for San Antonio, Texas.

Righthander Ray Crone held Brooklyn to four hits in nine innings for his best performance of the exhibition season. One of the hits was a home run by Don Newcombe. Corky Valentine pitched the tenth for the Braves.

Both of the Milwaukee runs were homers, Bobby Thomson's first of the spring in the second and Johnny Logan's sixth of the exhibition campaign in the fourth.

Newcombe's clout in the third gave Brooklyn a 1-1 tie. The Dodgers got another run in the fourth when Duke Snider singled, moved to second when Roy Campanella walked, and socred on Gino Cimoli's single through the box.

Newcombe worked the first six innings, and was followed by Clem Labine who finished up.

Nat Homers Spark 4-3 Comeback Win

SAVANNAH, Ga. (AP)—The Washington Senators slammed out three home runs and a single in the fourth inning Wednesday to come from behind and defeat Cincinnati's Redlegs 4-3.

Warren Hacker held the Senators hitless until the fourth, when with two out, Roy Sievers, Jim Lemon and Clint Courtney hit for the circuit. Courtney's home run came after Whitey Herzog had singled.

The Redlegs took a first-inning lead when they scored three runs.

Braves, Pirates Make Player Swap

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP)—The Milwaukee Braves and the Pittsburgh Pirates Wednesday swapped utility players in a straight trade-no cash deal.

Jim Pendleton, who plays both the infield and outfield for the Braves, went to the Pirates in exchange for Dick Cole, an infielder.

Pendleton, 33, has seen only occasional action with the Braves. He batted .289 for Wichita, Kan., of the Triple A American Assn. last year. Cole, who will be 31 May 6, batted .212 for Pittsburgh in 72 games last season.

The members clubhouse at Pimlico Race Course has been in use since 1870.

Wesleyan Athletes Face Busy Spring Sports Slate

If the weatherman allows, the Nebraska Wesleyan University spring sports squads will go through the spring at a hurry-up contest-a-day schedule.

Plainsmen teams have 45 contests set for the next 45 days. The schedule includes opponents in four states, with the tennis squad set to go to Colorado for one match; the baseball team slated to play in Minnesota; and the track team scheduled for a South Dakota meet.

The schedule includes 18 baseball games for Coach Irvin Peterson's team; 11 meets for Coach Woody Greeno's track squad; and eight golf and tennis matches. Kieth Skogman coaches golf and Bill Hill coaches tennis.

Greeno's track squad is slated to get things moving on Friday when they will entertain the Hastings College Broncos in a dual meet at Wesleyan. The Wesleyan golfers are set to entertain Omaha University the same day in Lincoln.

Thursday's scheduled baseball game with the Lincoln Air Force Base team has been postponed.

Speedster Mashburn Ineligible

KANSAS CITY (AP)— J.W. Mashburn, Oklahoma A&M quarter-mile star, has been declared ineligible for the 1957 national collegiate track and field championships.

Walter Byers, executive secretary of the National Collegiate Athletic Assn., said the NCAA found that Mashburn has exhausted three seasons of eligibility. He said Mashburn competed for Oklahoma University in the Sugar Bowl track meet in December 1952, and for Oklahoma A&M in the 1954-55 and 1955-56 seasons.

The ruling raised the possibility that Mashburn, a member of the U.S. Olympic team, may be ineligible to compete in major relays in the Southwest and Middle West.

Byers said that while the NCAA ruling would not apply to the Texas, Kansas or Drake relays, officials of these meets are understood to have decided to operate their university division events under NCAA eligibility rules.

Omaha Native Completes Swap

KANSAS CITY (AP) — The Kansas City Athletics Wednesday acquired pitcher Jack Elmer Urban as part of a player deal with the New York Yankees.

The 29-year-old righthander from Omaha, Neb., played last season with Denver of the American Assn., winning 11 and losing 8.

Urban was a transfer in a 13-player trade in which the Yankees obtained pitchers Bobby Shantz and Art Ditmar and the Athletics got hurlers Tom Morgan, Walter "Rip" Coleman and Maurice McDermott, infielder Billy Hunter and outfielder Irv Noren.

Fans Boo Zulueta's Decision Over Lopes

WASHINGTON (AP)—Orlando Zulueta of Cuba, lasting out a slow start, won a roundly-booed split decision over Joey Lopes of Sacramento, Calif., in a 10-round lightweight bout Wednesday night at Capitol Arena.

Zuleta weighed 136 to Lopes' 133.

Globetrotters Rip College All-Stars

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP) — The Harlem Globetrotters handily whipped the College All-Stars, 54-35 Wednesday night to take a 3-1 lead in their national basketball tour series.

Andy Johnson, hitting well from outside, led the Trotters with 14 points. Hank Nowak of Canisius topped the Stars for the third time, but his six points were all from the foul line.

Meet To Beatrice

Friday's scheduled track meet between Beatrice and Lincoln Northeast has been switched from the Northeast track to Beatrice. The Northeast track is not in condition for a meet.

Ord Meet Postponed

ORD—The Ord high school invitational track and field meet scheduled for Wednesday was postponed until Friday because of inclement weather.

Forty-two schools expect to participate.

NWU Dual Postponed

The dual track meet scheduled Friday afternoon between Nebraska Wesleyan and Hastings has been postponed because of inclement weather.

The meet has been reset for next Tuesday at the O.N. Magee Memorial Stadium track, according to Wesleyan cinder coach Woody Greeno. Field events will start at 2:30 and track events at 3 p.m.

Next Rassle April 16

Tom Novak, Lincoln's rassling promoter, says the next rassle card is scheduled for Tuesday, April 16.

The matches scheduled for last Tuesday were cancelled because of the weather, but Novak says he feels sure the weatherman will cooperate the 16.

Cup Match Switched

ZURICH, Switzerland (AP)—Czechoslovakia will play its first round Davis Cup tennis match against Switzerland in Lugano April 26-28, after some members of the Swiss team refused to play in Communist-dominated Prague.

Spieser, Anthony Plan Free-Swinging Battle

DETROIT (AP) — Tony Anthony's announced plan to try for a quick knockout when he tangles with Chuck Spieser in a 12-round light heavyweight bout here Friday night has the wholehearted approval of his favored opponent.

"That's great," said Spieser when he heard of Anthony's remarks. "The closer he gets to me, the better I figure my chances are. It'll make a more interesting fight all the way around if he's a free swinger."

The winner of the match will get a crack at Archie Moore's title in a June 7 bout in Detroit. Spieser is a heavy favorite to get that shot and the oddsmakers have made him a 13-5 favorite.

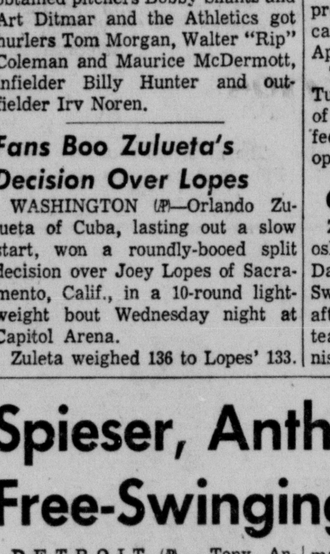

Spieser hasn't been in action since Nov. 28, when he belted out Willie Hoepner in two rounds. He fought only four times in 1956, losing two decisions to heavyweight Willie Pastrano and beating Hoepner and Joe Rowan.

"After the Hoepner fight," Spieser said, "I figured I'd take the holidays off and have a nice rest. It's turned out to be the longest holiday I ever saw, but I don't think the layoff will hurt me. I'm in good shape and seem to be sharp enough."

Tickets have been moving slowly.

BUD WILLIAMSON

WILLIAMSON PUSHES PGA MEET FOR 4-STATE AREA

Because of an idea hatched by Lincoln Country Club golf professional Bud Williamson, Lincoln may be the site of a four-state PGA tournament next summer.

Williamson, vice president of the Nebraska Professional Golfers Association, has started the ball rolling for a PGA tourney involving professionals from Nebraska, Iowa, Missouri and Kansas.

As Williamson visualizes it, the affair would include a tournament, a pro-amateur event and team matches.

He said the idea met with favor in the states involved. The Nebraska, Iowa and Missouri-Kansas area PGA's have pledged financial support.

Williamson said that the event would probably be held late in the summer, and that Lincoln stands a good chance og getting the first event.

Other likely sites are Omaha, Des Moines and Kansas City. The event would become an annual affair and rotate among these sites.

Champ Loi Wins

MILAN (AP)—European lightweight champion Duilio Loi of Milan, Italy, stopped Germany's champion Karl Heinz Bick on a technical knockout at 2:42 of the last round in a non-title 10-round fight Wednesday night.

Loi weighed 138½ pounds, Bick 138¼.

Basilio Said Offered $100,000 For Defense

SYRACUSE, N.Y. (AP) — Welterweight champion Carmen Basilio has been offered $100,000 to defend his crown against former champion Tony DeMarco, one of Basilio's managers said Wednesday night.

Johnny DeJohn said the offer for a May 24 bout in the Boston Garden "sounds pretty good."

DeJohn said the take would be about equal to what Basilio might expect from a shot at the middleweight title. There had been talk that the welter champion from nearby Canastota might meet the winner of a Ray Robinson-Gene Fullmer middleweight title fight.

DeJohn said that if Basilio accepts the Boston offer he will have to seek postponement of a May 13 bout in Portland, Ore., with an as yet unnamed opponent. He said that probably could be moved back to June.

Basilio has stopped DeMarco twice, both times in the 12th round. He won the crown from DeMarco for the first time at Syracuse June 10, 1955, and beat him again at Boston Nov. 30, 1955.

Dave Philippi, Wymore; John Benson, Wymore; Eldon Pequette, Deshler; Cecil Ehlers, Deshler; Douglas Prochazka, Wilber; Wendell Quist, Sutton; Robert Eberhard, Sutton; Dick Bode Friend.

DES MOINES TICKET SALE TOPS 70,000

DES MOINES (AP)—Advance ticket orders for the Western League baseball season here went over the 70,000 mark Wednesday night as volunteer workers completed a 50-hour public sale.

This has been the most productive baseball promotional drive Des Moines has ever had, said Bill Reichardt, promotion director for Baseball Unlimited.

"We feel that we have created real baseball enthusiasm here," he said, "and now it's up to the Cubs to give us a winning ball club."

The Demons are a farm club of the Chicago Cubs.

Potgieter Matched

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP) — Ewart Potgieter, 7-foot 2-inch South African, will meet Johnny Holman, Chicago heavyweight, instead of Nino Valdes of Cuba in a 10-round fight here April 9.

Promoter Tom Moyer said Wednesday Valdes is suffering from an attack of flu. The Cuban will come here two weeks later to meet the winner of the Potgieter-Holman fight.

BAUER SIZZLES IN ABC TOURNEY

FORT WORTH, Tex. — Ervin Bauer led a six man delegation from Lincoln in the minor events of the American Bowling Congress tournament here Wednesday as he clicked off a 588 series in the singles division.

The best Lincoln mark in the doubles was a 1035 compiled by the joint efforts of George Fisk and Harry Pappas.

500 Dogs Expected In National Dog Show Here April 21

More than 500 dogs from all sections of the country are expected to bid for honors in the Cornhusker Kennel Clubs national show April 21.

Both a dog show and obedience trials will be staged at the Fairgrounds Exposition Building. The show is sanctioned by the American Kennel Club.

Last year the show attracted 369 dogs.

There will be competition among local dogs besides the national show.

Entries must be made by April 7 at the Cornhusker Hotel.

Free instructions on the showing of dogs will be given April 7 and April 13 at the Municipal Pool Building at 2:30 p.m.

Interested dog owners may contact Mrs. Jack Beard or Mrs. M. E. Hollister for further information.

LaMotta Claims Court Erred; Asks For New Miami Trial

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Former middleweight champion Jake LaMotta Wednesday moved for a new trial on charges of violating the state law against prostitution.

He was convicted in court of crimes March 19 of operating a place in which a 14-year-old girl made dates for prostitution and of "aiding and abetting" her activities.

He was sentenced to six months in jail and fined $500 but has been free in custody of his attorney.

LaMotta's motion for a new trial included 53 claims of error and prejudice and said the jury finding of guilt was based on mistakes and inconsistent with evidence.

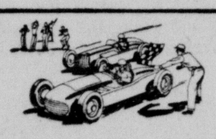

He declared the court erred in clearing the courtroom of spectators while the 14-year-old allegedly involved in the case told her story. He also said Florence Balsam — with whom he is charged with conspiring to violate the prostitution law—should have been called to tell "the full story, subject to cross-examination

'NEW' PISTON TEAM, KNICKS SWAP PLAYERS

NEW YORK (AP)—The New York Knickerbockers and Detroit Pistons annuonced a five-player deal Wednesday, which sent Mel Hutchins to New York in exchange for Harrry Gallatin and Nat "Sweetwater" Clifton.

In addition, the Knicks pick up the rights to Detroit's first 1957 draft choice, while the Pistons get the rights to Dick Atha, currently on the Knicks' reserve list.

The deal marks the first transaction for the Detroit club, which just moved from Ft. Wayne, after finishing third in the NBA's Western Division. They will have second draft choice when the NBA holds its annual meeting and draw in St. Louis, April 17.

In order to get Hutchins, the Knicks who finished last in the Eastern Division, had to give away their top scorer in Gallatin, and their most colorful performer, in Clifton.

Hutchins, who just finished his sixth year in the NBA, scored 890 points for the Pistons this season. The 27-year-old defensive specialist started his career with the Milwaukee Hawks in 1951, but was sold to Ft. Wayne in 1953 for a reported $25,000.

During the past season the 30-year-old Gallatin led the Knicks in scoring, with 1,079 points, and in rebounds with 725. Clifton, who began his pro career with the Harlem Globetrotters, played seven seasons with the Knicks. He was the club's fifth scorer this season with 762 points.

Broken Bow-lers Lead Tournament

ORD—Tom's Pastime of Broken Bow fired a 2,544 scratch score which with a 354 handicap was good for a 2,898 and the lead in the team division of the Misko Bowling Tournament here.

Calvin and Beck of Ord held their lead in the doubles. They have a 1,208 total. In the singles, Tom Connelly of Broken Bow took the lead with a 639, constructed of a 579 scratch and a 60-pin handicap.

Connelly is the all-events leader with a 1,607. The tournament will close Sunday, April 7.

No Favorite As Masters Tourney Opens Today

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP)—The biggest of all Masters Golf Tournament gets underway today with a field of 102 amateurs and professionals and without one player who can be singled out as the favorite.

The Masters started out in 1934 as a rather informal golf party for Bob Jones and some of his friends, played on a then new course which was destined to become one of the great tests of golfing skill.

Since then the tournament has grown in size and stature until it has become one of the most important of the season—regarded by many golfers as equal in importance to the U. S. Open championship. And the big, beautiful Augusta National Course has matured so that the greatest skill and endurance are required to win on it.

This year's entry list passed a milestone when more than 100 golfers, the pick of the amateur and professional crop in the United States and four foreign nations, indicated they would start. The previous high was 84 starters last year.

The 6,980-yard, par 36-36-72 laid out among the pine trees in Georgia's clay hills with a colorful assortment of flowering trees and shrubs decking each hole. Its broad fairways and big greens have a deceptively easy look, but the records of 64 for a single round and 274 for the tournament show no one ever murders par on Augusta National.

It's the kind of course which Jackie Burke, last year's winner, says is so tough nobody ever thinks he'll play well on it.

Speculation about the likely winner has centered around a half dozen or so who have proved they can play well here.

The consensus choice is Cary Middlecoff, current U.S. Open champion and Masters winner in 1955. But more than any other the golfers seem to fear Ben Hogan, the grim-faced little Texan who never enters a tournament unless he thinks he can win.

All-Sports Day To Be Held Regardless Of The Weather

University of Nebraska officials said Wednesday that All-Sports Day will take place Saturday, regardless of the weather.

However, baseball may be one of the sports to be eliminated.

If the Huskers can't play Drake in the baseball game Friday as scheduled, there will be a double header Saturday as part of the All-Sports Day, officials announced.

If baseball is completely cancelled, the gymnastic and swimming exhibition will be moved up to the morning.

The track meet between Nebraska and Colorado A&M will be held at noon Saturday. If at all possible, officials said, the meet will be held outdoors. If impossible to use the outdoor track, the meet will be moved indoors.

The football game will be played Saturday afternoon, regardless of the weather, they added. Saturday is the last day of spring practice for the Huskers and they must play the game.

Leahy Takes Grid Post At California

OMAHA (AP) — Don Leahy, head football coach at Creighton Prep of Omaha, said Wednesday he is leaving April 10 to become a varsity football assistant at the University of California.

The Berkeley, Calif., school's head coach is Pete Elliott who coached at the University of Nebraska last year.

Leahy's starting salary was believed here to be at least $7,000.

He is a graduate of Marquette University.

Diller Liquor Sale Proposal Is Nixed

DILLER, Neb. — Diller voters rejected by two to one allowance of sale of package liquors within the town limits. The vote was 47 for and 97 against the issue.

Village trustees elected for a two-year term were Joe McNeely, Donald Maw and Hollis Wolf.

Two incumbents returned to posts on the Diller rural high school board were Mrs. Martha Duis and William Weers.

WEST POINT, Neb. (AP) — Dal Benne unseated incumbent Vincent Adams in West Point's contested City Council election. Elected to the school board were Harvey Jurgenson and incumbent John Lubker.

Meat Animals Given Credit For Farm Price Index Hike

The index of prices received by Nebraska farmers increased nine points during the month ending March 15, the State-Federal Division of Agricultural Statistics reported.

Sharp increases in the prices of meat animals were responsible for the increase, the division said.

The index at 251 per cent of its 1909-14 average compares with 242 per cent a month earlier and 227 per cent in March a year ago.

The all livestock and livestock products index, advancing 13 points during the month to reach 263 per cent, more than offset a decline of one point in the index for all crops which slipped to 221 per cent.

Wheat and corn at $2.06 and $1.27 per bushel respectively, remained unchanged from their mid-Febuary price. Oats, barley and rye were all 1 cent lower at $.80, $1.05 and $1.09 respectively. Bailed hay prices were $1.40 lower at $21.60 per ton.

Alfalfa seed was the only crop to show an increase over last month, advancing 80 cents to reach $29.50 per cwt. Dry beans remain unchanged from last month at $6.10 per cwt. While soybeans at $2.14 per bushel dropped two cents.

The division reported that hog prices averaged $17 per cwt. On March 15, 60 cents higher than the month before. Cattle and calves, at $18.40 and $19.70 per cwt. respectively, were both $1.40 higher than their mid-February price. Lambs advanced $2.20 per cwt. to reach $21.80 while sheep remain unchanged from last month at $6.50 per cwt.

Wholesale milk was off 10 cents to average $4.10 per cwt. while butterfat held to the mid-Febuary average of 59 cents per pound. Eggs at 24 cents per dozen were 1.1 cent lower for the month.

The division said that Nebraska farmers paid a little less for most of their feed items on March 15 than a month earlier.

Prices were slightly lower for mixed dairy and hog feeds, mill feeds, high protein concentrates and hay. Prices of most other feeds were unchanged during the month, the division said.

Washington Move Seen For LeMay

WASHINGTON (INS) — The magazine Aviation Week speculated that Gen. Curtis E. LeMay may be brought to Washington as vice chief of staff of the Air Force.

LeMay is now chief of the Stratefic Air Command at Omaha, Neb. The magazine said "it appears that General Curtis Emerson LeMay will relinguish his long command of the SAC and move into the pentagon as vice chief of staff to General White."

Gen. Thomas D. White, present vice chief, has been nominated to succeed Gen. Nathan F. Twining as Air chief of staff this summer. Twining will replace Adm. Arthur W. Radford as chairman of the joint chiefs of staff.

The magazine said the prospective move "may be a firm indication that he (LeMay) will eventually become chief of staff, since the last three vice chiefs have eventually moved up to the top spot."

LeMay was nominated for chief of staff in 1952, with the support of the late Gen. Hoyt Vandenberg and then Air Force Secretary Thomas K. Finletter.

But the Air Force announced on Oct. 28, 1952, that it had been decided "after consultation with the President and chairman of the senate armed services committee" to cancel LeMay's nomination and leave Twining in the post.

Hormel Halting Contributions To Sharing Program

AUSTIN, Minn. (AP) — The George A. Hormel Co. said it is discontinuing contributions to one of its famed profit-sharing plans for its meat packing plant workers.

The plan is the profit-sharing trust created by Jay Hormel in 1944 for employes' pensions.

The firm said the action does not affect the profit-sharing production bonus plan.

The pension trust program has been supported entirely by contributions from the Hormel Co.

The company said the decision to quit making contributions came after actuaries found the value of "units" earned by employes was being "drastically reduced."

The company said it has a new pension plan under consideration which takes into account an employe's interest in the profit-sharing trust. No current employe's interest in the trust will be reduced, the announcement said.

Hormel operates at Austin, Dallas, Fort Dodge, Iowa; Atlanta, Birmingham, Mitchell, S. D.; and Fremont, Neb.

Ike Says U.S. To Continue Suez Talks With Egypt

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower said Wednesday the United States intends to continue Suez Canal negotiations with Egypt as long as there is "any prospect whatsoever for conciliation on both sides to reach a satisfactory answer."

As he stated this purpose at a news conference word spread in diplomatic quarters here that the latest message from Cairo on the Suez issue offered little encouragement to the hopes of western nations for guaranteeing the rights of countries using the canal.

Secretary of State Dulles was reported to be directing personally an intensive study of the Egyptian note. Meanwhile State Department officials were beginning consultations with representatives of Britain, France and other countries to whom unhindered use of the canal is a vital issue.

State Department press officer Lincoln White described the Egyptian message as "a preliminary response" to the U.S. note of last Sunday proposing modifications in a canal operations plan submitted last week by Egypt.

'Favorable'

Dulles instructed State Department officials not to discuss the Egyptian reply in any way or to characterize it in such terms as "favorable" or "unfavorable."

However, persons informed about the nature of the response said the initial impression was that it was not "very helpful."

Eisenhower, in response to news conference questions, said he did not know exactly how the issue of Egypt's decision to bar Israeli ships from the canal is to be settled.

He drew a sharp distinction between American assurances of support for Israeli interests in the Gaza Strip and the Gulf of Aqaba and the problem of Israeli interests in the use of the Suez Canal.

The President declined to discuss "the character and the reliability" of Egyptian President Gamal Abdel Nasser when he was asked whether he thought that Egypt under Nasser was "susceptible to moral pressures" of world public opinion.

He said at another point the problem of making satisfactory arrangements with Egypt for the future operations of the canal is one which has been assigned "in general" to Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold of the United Nations.

As long as Hammarskjold "believes there is a chance" of success, Eisenhower said, "we continue to support the United Nations."

Barrier

JERUSALEM (AP) — Israel threatened to erect her own barbed wire fence along the Gaza Strip border to keep out Arab infiltrators and suicidal Fedayeen raiders.

Declaring Israel's dissatisfaction with arrangements U.N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold made with Egypt to surpress across-the-border raids from Gaza, a Foreign Ministry official said his government wants a physical barrier for the 26-by 6-mile strip.

Final Appeal

CAIRO (INS)—U.S. Ambassador Raymond A. Hare was understood to have made a final appeal to President Gamal Abdel Nasser to soften his decision to run the Suez Canal as strictly Egyptian property.

Hare made a similar approach to Foreign Minister Mahmoud Fawzi earlier in the day but was turned down flat.

Not Permitted

CAIRO (AP) — A responsible Egyptian source said Egypt will not let Israeli ships enter Egyptian territorial waters and so there is no possibility of them reaching the Suez Canal.

"It is not a question of the Egyptian Suez Canal Authority refusing to allow an Israeli vessel to pass through," said the informant. "It is simply that Egypt will not permit an enemy vessel to enter its territorial waters. So long as Israel remains in a state of war with Egypt her ships won't even get near the Suez Canal."

Women's Clubs Urged To Participate In And Study All Government Levels

Chloe Gifford, first vice president of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, told state convention delegates that study and participation in all levels of government is part of their duty.

The national officer from Lexington, Ky. addressed the Wednesday evening session of sixty-first state meeting on "Together We Face the Future."

Encouraging well-qualified women to enter into school board and city government posts, the national officer warned that "we must stand behind our qualified women candidates, but we must not go off half-cocked."

'Study The U.N.'

She urged the women to study the United Nations, explaining that "although I do not consider it a perfect vehicle, it is the best we have to work toward world peace."

Miss Gifford also discussed the work and objectives of the parent international organization which has a membership of 11 million women throughout the world.

Earlier Wednesday, Morris Jacobs, former president of the State Board of Education, made a strong plea for school district reorganization in Nebraska.

"Equal opportunity for public education in Nebraska remains a myth," he asserted. "Some of these places called schools are not worthy of the name."

He contended that the state board's efforts toward redistricting have been aimed solely at improving the Nebraska school system.

"Unfortunately, whenever you want to change the old for the new, whenever you want to take steps to modernize, and whenever you do anything which might cost more money — even though the benefits would ultimately be great — you receive from many persons brickbats instead of bouquets as your reward for public service," he said.

The state federation convention will end Thursday with a morning meeting and an award luncheon.

NU REPORTS JUMP IN EXTENSION WORK

The University of Nebraska Extension Division reported increases this year of 27 per cent in evening classes, 24 per cent in high school correspondence courses, 14 per cent in college-level correspondence courses and four per cent in off-campus courses.

Largest enrollments in off-campus courses held in 52 Nebraska towns were 631 at Lincoln hospitals, 167 at Albion, 134 at Ord and 121 at Plainview.

Pre-Centennial Regional Masonic Meetings Planned

Another in a series of pre-centennial regional meetings of Masonic lodges in Nebraska will be held at Beatrice April 11. Eighteen lodges in Johnson, Gage, Jefferson, Thayer and Saline counties will participate.

This series of regional meetings is part of a state-wide observance of the 100th anniversary of the Masonic Grand Lodge in Nebraska.

The formal centennial program will be held in Omaha June 2-6 during the annual communication of the Grand Lodge.

Lancaster County Judge Herbert A. Ronin of Lincoln, grand junior deacon of the Grand Lodge will be the pricipal speaker at the Beatrice meeting.

FAITH IN ONE GOD HAS MANY SOURCES—NIEBUHR

Radical monotheism — the faith that holds there is only one god and all that exists originates in him and is therefore good—has many sources and continually reorganizes itself in western civilization, Dr. H. Richard Niebuhr, noted American theologian from the Yale University Divinity School, said Wednesday night.

Dr. Niebuhr's talk was the second of a series of three Montgomery Lectures at the University of Nebraska Love Library auditorium. The final lecture will be Friday at 8 p.m

He said that radical monotheism in the West did not emerge as a specifically religious faith. Moses, the eighth-century prophets and Jesus Christ were political and social leaders who had an impact on the total life of men through the faith they mediated.

Many Other Sources

"On the other hand," Dr. Niebuhr said, "religion in the West does not derive solely from the radical monotheism of Judaism and of Jesus Christ. It has many other sources—psychological, sociological, historical. Religion is a manifold and varied set of attitudes, beliefs, feelings, practices. What faith in one God-beyond-all-gods does is to provide for the reorganization and purification and reorientation of this varied religious life.

"That reorganization is never complete and is always subject to new deformations. Religion, for instance, is in part a sense for the holy. In our human, polytheistic religion we find holiness, that which inspires awe and gives the sense of mystery, now here, now there. Hence we have holy institutions, holy men, holy places, holy events and these are not too well connected with each other.

Secularizes And Sanctifies

"Radical monotheism tends to secularize and sanctify all of existence at the same time. It deprives special men and special institutions and special natural events of their holiness, for only God, the very principle of being, is truly holy. At the same time it sees holiness, something to be reverenced, in everything.

"This is something we recognize especially in the feeling for the worth, the dignity of all men. When Albert Schweitzer reverences life he notes such a holiness in all life. Radical monotheism also reorganizes the natural human religion of prayer to superhuman powers for aid in all human distress Such prayer is very natural to man, but it is variously directed to all sorts of beings, to spiritual forces, spirits of the dead, and the like. In radical monotheism the life of prayer is reorganized by being made the prayer of confidence and of self-reorganization before the ultimate God.

Substitute Diety

"The story of radical monotheism in western religion is one of constant struggle with tendencies to substitute for the principle of being, of the God beyond all gods, some deity who is the special representative of a closed society.

"The two forms in which the deformation of radical monotheism appears most frequently in western religion is exclusive emphasis on the church as the one way to God, and in the cult of Jesus Christ as virtually the Christian God. In the former case the community that exists to point to the ultimate power and the ultimate goodness points to itself. In the latter case the reconciler of man to God is confused with God.

"The consequences are that Christianity cuts itself off from relations to Jews, Mohammedans and the believers in the Eastern world. It also tends to cut off religion from the rest of man's culture."

State Juvenile Court System Proposal Heard Without Action

By BETTY PERSON
Star Staff Writer

A bill calling for a constitutional amendment to establish a Juvenile Court system in Nebraska, LB124, was one of four measures heard before the Judiciary Committee Wednesday, but the committee adjourned without taking action on any of the bills.

Another of the measures considered, LB 238, would submit to the voters in Nov. 1958 the question of calling a convention to revise Nebraska's Constitution.

LB 124, was described by its introducer Sen. George Syas of Omaha, as a "very flexible bill which doesn't force anything on anybody."

If the voters should decide they want a juvenile court, its machinery would be set up by the Legislature and such courts would follow the outlines of district courts.

Houghton Furr, chairman of the Lincoln Juvenile Crime Prevention Committee, and District Judge Jackson B. Chase of Omaha led the testimony favoring the bill.

Pointing out that there are courts established to take care of other specialized fields such as workmen's compensation and real estate boards, Chase said that certainly the "interests of children are a very important subject."

Describing the need to have judges trained in handling juvenile problems, Chase said, "If we're going to have the proper type of legislation and litigation and what we judges call justice, we should spend more time on children than we do on matters involving mere dollars and cents."

Terry's Suggestion

Sen. Terry Carpenter of Scottsbluff suggested that to alleviate Omaha's pressing need, the Legislature might approve an additional district judge for Omaha to handle juvenile matters until the constitutional amendment establishing the court system can be acted upon.

Mrs. Hulda Roper of the Lincoln Police Department, told the committee of her 13 years' experience working with juveniles and said, "If the right help doesn't come at the right time, these children are lost."

She suggested that the Juvenile Court be given expanded jurisdiction to study every phase of children's problems.

No Opposition

No one appeared in opposition to the measure.

Sens. David Tews of Norfolk and Monroe Bixler of Harrison, co-introducers of LB 238 along with Sen. August Wagner of Columbus, told the committee that many persons feel the time has come to take an overall look at the State Constitution.

Tews said that "amending it piecemeal is no way to maintain a flexible Constitution." He reviewed the history of constitutional conventions in the state and pointed out that the present Constitution is "substantially the same one adopted in 1875" and has been amended 61 times.

Bixler said that the only opposition to a convention "comes from the selfish interests, those who feel they have a 'good deal' in the present one and are afraid a revision will take away their privileges."

Minimum Smoker Age—16

The committee also heard testimony on LB 230 which would make the state's laws uniform on the minimum age for users of tobacco and sets it at 16 years.

Sen. Norman Otto of Kearney offered an amendment to raise the age limit to 18 years, but omit application of the law to correctional institutions.

Nolan Ellinson, superintendent of the Boys Training School at Kearney, said the use of tobacco is extended to their inmates 18 or over as a privilege and helps to keep the youths in line.

He said it was hard to enforce any rules against the use of tobacco in such an institution when people outside generally do not attempt to do so.

The fourth measure heard, LB 592, is a corrective measure dealing with jurisdiction over cases involving divorce, alimony and custody of children.

Bill To Kill Schroeder Mail Route Act Dies

A bill to abolish the Schroeder Mail Route Act was one of five killed Wednesday by the Legislature's Public Works Committee.

A 6-1 vote dispatched the bill, LB 558, introduced by Sen. Monroe Bixler of Harrison. The measure had been given public hearing earlier.

The Schroeder Act, named after a former senator, apportions part of state gas tax revenue to the counties specifically for improving rural mail routes.

While killing LB 558, the committee advanced to the legislative floor two bills adding new roads to the state highway system.

Approved

LB 140, by Sen. Frank Nelson of O'Neill, adding to the state-maintained system a highway from Page in Holt County, north through Red Bird and connecting with Highway 12 near Lynch in Boyd County.

LB 542, by Sen. D. J. Cole of Merriman, adding to the state system a highway from Rushville in Sheridan County, south to the Smith Lake recreation grounds.

Bills killed included Sen. Nelson's LB 106, which would have required the state to maintain a road linking any city or village within five miles of a state highway with that highway, providing the community contains a postoffice, school and church.

LB 106 was postponed indefinitely by a unanimous vote.

Killed

LB 168, by Sen. William Moulton of Omaha, limiting the increase in the state highway system to 50 miles per year.

LB 170 by Sen. Charles Tvrdik of Omaha, eliminating the law's provision for allocation of gas tax funds for the cost of maintaing state aid bridges.

LB 563, by Sens. Tvrdik and Bixler, prohibiting any construction within the right of way of the interstate highway including utility construction, except for purposes of crossing the highway.

Townsend To Address Omaha Area Democrats

OMAHA (AP) — State Democratic Party Chairman Willard Townsend of Lincoln will speak here Thursday at a luncheon sponsored by the Douglas County Democratic Club.

Club President Alfred C. Fielder said party leaders from Douglas, Otoe, Washington, Sarpy and Cass Counties plan to attend. Townsend will confer with them before the luncheon.

Ike Sure Proposal For Federal Aid To Schools Will Survive

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower said Wednesday he "by no means" thinks his proposal to provide federal aid for school construction will be a casualty of the economy drive in Congress.

Eisenhower told his news conference the national classroom shortage was in part "brought about by national emergencies" and thus "the national government ought to help."

As the President spoke, a House Education subcommittee was holding its first day of closed door meetings to consider a school aid bill. The group was faced with trying to compromise between what Eisenhower proposed and a more expensive plan urged by some Democrats.

Rep. Metcalf (D-Mont), a member of the subcommittee, told a reporter in advance of the session that he believes the program has a good chance of passage because, he said, the Republicans really want it.

Rep. McConnell (R-Pa), author of the administration bill, said the "atmosphere of budget cutting" was a hazard and "we may not be able to get it through — I don't know." But he said Eisenhower will be "strong" for the program.

'Back to States'

And Eisenhower was, as he has been right along.

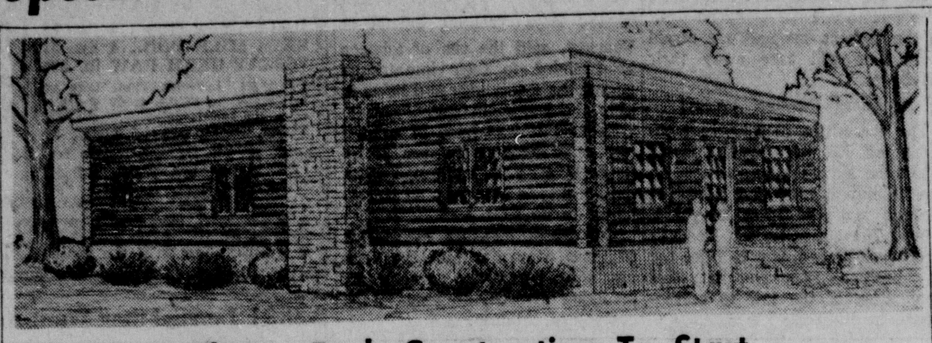

The President gave this summary of his objective:

"Get those buildings built, and then turn the whole thing back to the states, and have nothing more to do with it."

Eisenhower has proposed a four-year program which would give the states a total of $1,300,000,000 for classroom building. Grants would be distributed on the basis of school age population and relative state income.

An alternative bill by Rep. Kelley (D-Pa) would provide federal grants of $3,600,000,000 over six years. Distribution would be based solely on school age population.

A school aid bill was killed last year by the House.

Shrine Park Construction To Start

Members of the Blue Valley Shrine Club at a meeting in Beatrice, Neb., approved plans for the log cabin lodge building shown above. Construction of the 70 by 24 foot building in Shrine Park, new youth park at Beatrice, is to begin immediately, accordingly to Gordon C. Pentz, president. The cabin is expected to be completed in time for use during the Beatrice Centennial July 21-27. (Drawing Special to the Star.)

Nebraska, Iowa Landowners Protest Proposed DeSoto Bend Game Refuge

WASHINGTON (AP) — Property owners in the area of the proposed DeSoto Bend Wildlife Refuge in Iowa and Nebraska Wednesday opposed the project before the Senate Interior Appropriations subcommittee.

Rep. Jensen (R-Ia), a member of the House Appropriations Committee, supported the refuge but said the Fish and Wildlife Service now proposes to acquire more land than he considers necessary.

The refuge would be established through a cut-off channel to strighten a horseshoe bend in the Missouri River.

Jensen said he believed, in successfully advocating a $200,000 initial appropriation in the House, that the land to be acquired was all within the bend of the Nebraska side of the river. He learned only Tuesday he said, that the plan calls for acquisition of about 3,000 additional acres outside of the bend in Iowa.

Jensen proposed that land acquisition be limited to the 4,000 acres inside the bend, plus a narrow strip around the outside to provide for a road and a buffer zone.

Frank A. Tietz, chairman of the Eastern Nebraska Taxpayer's Protective Assn., presented a petition signed by 2,000 local landowners on the Nebraska side of the bend who oppose the project. He said its only support in the area comes from the owners of sporting goods stores.

F. Pace Woods of Lincoln, owner of 2,000 acres of land in the proposed refuge area, said federal acquisition of the property would remove 65 per cent of the taxable land base for DeSoto township schools.

Woods also asserted that the 900 acre lake to be created is unnecessary because both the Gavins Point and Randall Dam reservoirs are on the flyway of the eastern prairie flock of geese.

William H. Welch, Logan, Ia., attorney, said Iowa landowners sent him here to oppose the project when they learned last week that Iowa land was to be involved. Previously, he said, they were "passively permissive" when they thought the refuge would be entirely on the Nebraska side of the river.

Eden Leaves

OTEHEI BAY, New Zealand (INS)—Former British Prime Minister Sir Anthony Eden left by plane for Boston to receive medical treatment.

He is believed to be suffering from an ailment affecting the bile duct.

The 59-year-old Eden has been ill for some time. He came to New Zealand to rest and convalesce after he resigned as prime minister Jan. 9.

Sultan Invited

RABAT, Morocco (AP) — The imperial palace said Sultan Mohammed V has been invited to visit Egypt's President Nasser in Cairo.

Palace sources said he might stop in Egypt on a pilgrimage to Mecca in July but there are no definite plans yet.

DELAPLANE'S POSTCARD

"The cabbage aphid, averaging 41 young per female, has 16 generations between March 31 and October in New York State. If all lived, the descendants of one female Aphid would total 1, 5 6 0, 0 0 0, 0 0 0,000,000, 0 0 0,000,000,000,"

This is important for anyone considering living in New York State from March 31 to October.

Fortunately I do not live in New York State at any time. Except for a few weeks in the fall to catch the new shows.

Most of the time I live in California State and have never seen a cabbage aphid. I am not particularly fond of cabbage except in the cole slaw they make at Luchow's in New York and Grison's in San Francisco.

I doubt if we raise enough cabbage around here to support the offspring of a cabbage aphid.

☆ ☆ ☆

We are not without bugs, however. We are now beginning on bumblebee season. Big, four-engine jobs with black and white stripes.

When the bees have gone, we will have oak moths.

After that come the yellow jackets. Last year I sat on two yellow jackets — at separate times. I would rather sit on 1,560,000,000,000,000,000,000,000,000 cabbage moths all at one time than on one yellow jacket.

My bug control bill for the year is fantastic. I am constantly running down to the grocery for a buzz bomb full of ant spray, or fly spray or moth killer.

When the oak moths come, we have to get a professional with a whole cartload of spray to shoot them down.

I do not understand why this is For years and years my country retreat stood in all its quiet glory. The trees grew and the wild flowers bloomed and, I suppose, were buggy as could be.

No sooner did I move in but all this greenery became puny and needed a whole lot of help. The oak trees could hardly hold their own against the oak moths. And I had expensive surgeons every day, propping up the madrones.

The whole place began to totter and fall apart.

"The roots aren't getting enough air," said the tree man professionally.

"An oxygen tent?" I said, wincing as I thought of the cost.

"We'll try digging a trench first," he said.

We dug a trench. I mean a man dug a trench. He dug it at $5 an hour or some such fantastic trench-digging price. He was an artist and I had to run out every hour with cajoling little remarks and bottles of Coke.

Sometimes he would just lean on the shovel and gaze moodily at the woods. He thought important thoughts.

☆ ☆ ☆

Now this oak has been growing for many years. Getting air for its roots from the great outdoors and shrugging off oak moths like a dog shrugs off fleas.

It was only after I built a house alongside that it began to need air and Plant-Gro and little needles full of tree hop and expensive vitamins.

We got a deep trench around the tree. The roots should get plenty of air. (Though why roots should need air is beyond me. If they need air, what in the world are they doing down in the ground?)

As soon as the trench was dug, we must pour in quantities of water mixed with some kind of chemical that is like giving it a shot of Scotch.

When we poured in the chemical, the dirt slid.

"It is choking the roots. You'd better shore it up."

I got the $5-an-hour man again. I got expensive lumber. We built the tree a little bed. It should stay in bed until it got to feeling better. I got the man with the cart. We murdered the oak moths by the 1,560,000,000,000,000,000,000,000s.

It is too late now. But I see my mistake. I should have built this house alongside cabbages.

NEBRASKA GRAIN, FEED DEALERS OPPOSE AMENDMENTS TO LB 553

OMAHA (AP) — The Nebraska Grain and Feed Dealers' Assn., voiced opposition to amendments made to LB 553, the grain and seed tax bill.

A resolution adopted at the group's convention here said they favored the bill as introduced. Rex Hagemeister of Crawford, president of the grain and feed dealers, said amendments would have doubled the tax levies in the original bill.

For example, he said, the grain levy at the farmer level, was originally 4 mills and has been amended to 8 mills.

A poultry farmer today can have as much as 80 per cent of his hens' eggs up to grade A standards, the Nebraska Grain and Feeders Assn. was told.

"In fact, he's got to get it to be successful," Frank Mussehl, chairman of the University of Nebraska poultry department, said. With about 60 per cent of his production costs in feed, the poultry man can get his expense down as low as 14 cents a dozen, Mussehl said.

"Hanging feeders, properly adjusted, will do a lot to reduce feed waste and they are not too expense to install," he declared.

Feed research with cattle has progressed much slower than that for poultry and hogs, Dr. W. C. Sherman, Terre Haute, Ind., said.

"But I think it's beginning to get off to a pretty fast start," he added. "The potential for the feed industry depends on how well it does in producing the different types of feed required for different conditions and types of animals."

Officers are Rex Hagemeister, Crawford, president; Edgar Havekost, Scribner, vice president, and Howard W. Elm, Lincoln, secretary.

IKE TELLS NEWSMEN:

Resignation Rumors 'Rot'

DOUGLAS B. CORNELL

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower dismissed Wednesday, as "the worst rot that I have heard," recurrent reports that he intends to step out and turn his job over to Vice President Nixon.

Eisenhower talked at his news conference like a man planning ahead for this second term — to the point of saying he certainly hopes that somewhere along the line there can be a general tax cut. He said he would like to see taxes slashed next year, "but I am not even trying to be that specific."

Plug For Red Cross

Once the chief executive asked newsmen to put in "a plug for the Red Cross" and its lagging drive for funds. The first question at the conference was a request for Eisenhower's views on his fast, over-the-speed-limits trip to his Gettysburg, Pa., farm last Friday.

He knew it was coming. And he smiled amiably and said he didn't mind talking about it.

He said he was engaged in a back seat conference, as has been his practice for several years, and had no idea of the speed his car was traveling with a secret service agent at the wheel. But because of the stories that were printed over the weekend, about his pace of up to 70 and 75 on highways limited to 50 and 55, the President said that "I have issued orders that we will be particularly careful never to exceed the speed limit at any place."

From there the questioning jumped to a wide range of subjects, with considerable emphasis on denials.

Eisenhower denied that he had given Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek assurances that the United States would help defend Quemoy and Matsu Islands, off the Chinese mainland, from attacks by Chinese Reds.

He denied that he had invited Anthony Eden, British prime minister at the time, and Premier Guy Mollett of France to the White House last November to announce a cease-fire in the invasion of Egypt.

He denied that Adm. Arthur W. Radford, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, has recommended in so many words the reinforcement of United Nations forces in South Korea with newer jet planes and other modern weapons because of a Communist build-up in North Korea.

And with stress and a hint of irritation, the President particularly undercut various published reports that when world conditions permit, he will resign and turn the reins of government over to Nixon.

"After labeling such reports rot, he went on to say:

"I frankly know of no reason why any speculative writer should at least doubt my basic integrity and honesty."

Mrs. Maul, Here 50 Years, Dies

Mrs. Katherine Maul, 74, of 1015 Rose, died Wednesday.

A Lincoln resident for 50 years, she was born in Europe. She was a member of Zion Congregational Church.

Her husband, Peter Maul, died in 1946.

Surviving are sons, Alexander of Lincoln and John of Dallas, Tex.; daughters, Mrs. Jacob Stoehr, Mrs. Scotty Kaufman, Miss Amelia Maul and Miss Marie Maul, all of Lincoln; sisters, Mrs. George Maull of Lincoln and Mrs. Anna Marie Schadt of Mason City, Ia.; brother, Peter Maul of Chicago, Ill.; six grandchildren.

Stock Market Continues Up

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market forged ahead again Wednesday although the pace simmered down a little from the previous session.

During the morning the market moved up briskly in active dealings. Later, trading slackened and many stocks retreated from their best levels.

In the final minutes prices and volume perked up again on a few key issues.

Volume at 2,160,000 shares fell below Tuesday's level of 2,300,000 shares, but that included 200,000 shares sold on a special bid Tuesday.

Steels, rubbers, aircrafts, rails and metals scored gains. Oils had a little difficulty in tacking much onto recent advances. Motors faded toward the close. Building materials declined.

Brokers thought the upturn stemmed partly from the fact Tuesday's market had seen prices break out on the upside of a narrow trading range. This trading range had persisted for about six weeks.

The AP average finished at its best point since Feb. 4, when it was $175.90. The 60 stocks gained 80 cents to $175.80 with industrials up $1.10, rails up $1.00 and utilities up 30 cents.

Prices on the American Stock Exchange were higher. Volume totaled 1,300,000 shares compared with 1,010,000 Tuesday.

BOND MARKET

NEW YORK (AP)—Convertible issues were active and sharply higher Wednesday in keeping with the advance of their stock counterparts but the rest of the bond market slipped over to the downside in the briskest trading in almost two months.

Rails and industrials declined while investment quality issues and utilities were narrowly mixed.

Volume totaled $4,780,000 par value on the Big Board, highest since last Feb. 13 when $4,860,000 was recorded. Tuesday's volume was $3,930,000.

U.S. government bonds drifted lower in light transactions over-the-counter.

WHEAT FUTURES UP; CORN LAGS

CHICAGO (AP) — Wheat futures Wednesday continued their modest rally on the Board of Trade on buying attributed largely to export interests.

Soybeans and rye were firm and oats showed little change. Corn continued to lag, as it had in recent sessions.

Wheat closed ¾ higher to ⅛ lower, corn ¼ to ¾ lower oats ⅛ to ¼ lower, rye ¾ to ⅞ higher, soybeans ⅜ to 1 cent higher, and lard 5 to 8 cents a hundred pounds higher.

There were indications that the Chicago market is sharing in export business, which has included heavy purchases by Yugoslavia. That country bought another 150,000 bushels of U.S. hard wheat overnight, traders reported.

A total of 146 cars of wheat were reported moved from Chicago overnight for the East Coast. Traders assume this is to cover some of the export sales, which mostly have come from government stocks recently.

Moisture news from the winter wheat area was about as bearish as it has been this year, but trade authorities said there already has been so much liquidation on the moisture that not much more seems likely.

Heavy precipitation, mostly in the form of snow, has fallen in western Kansas and Nebraska, parts of Oklahoma and Texas

Arnold Hospital Board Supporters Win Races

ARNOLD, Neb. (AP)—Supporters of the Arnold Hospital Board which has been at loggerheads with Dr. E. H. Reeves, physician denied staff privileges at the hospital won out in both village board and school board elections.

This made it a clean sweep inasmuch as the hospital board elections had resulted in victory for supporters of the board.

Liberal Party candidates Harlan Olin and Bill Connor won village board elections over the Citizens or pro-Reeves candidates I. M. Steberg and Troy Bowers. There were two 2-year terms at stake.

The Liberal Party was formed after supporters of Dr. Reeves flooded the caucus of the People's Party and nominated Steberg and Bowers in the people's as well as the Citizens Party.

The school board election split along the same lines as Dr. R. J. Prendergast, a dentist, and Jack Headley defeated Mrs. E. H. Reeves and Otis Larreau. Dr. Prendergast, an incumbent, and Headley are hospital board sympathizers.

Beatrice Issue Wins 2 To 1

Lincoln Star Special

BEATRICE, Neb.—A sewer use tax ordinance passed by the City Council but put on the ballots by referendum action, was approved by more than two to one by Beatrice voters. The ordinance was approved 1,674 to 740.

Despite high pre-election interest, only 2,436 of 5,919 registered voters cast ballots.

One council post was left hanging in midair until 18 absentee ballots are canvassed Monday night. In the Second Ward, incumbent Arnold Wullschleger led his opponent, Henry Williams by a two vote margin, 332 to 330. Eight of the absentee ballots are in the second ward.

First Ward Councilman Paul Kollekowski was defeated by Harold Rathjen 360 to 176. Rathjen was backed by the Beatrice Taxpayers Organization which campaigned to stop "steamroller politics."

Dillow Winner

Don Dillow defeated Frank Hollingsworth in the Fourth Ward, 444 to 355. Leslie Warren was unopposed for re-election in the Third Ward and was given 342 votes.

Elected to the school board were Lloyd Wright, 1,490; George Kilpatrick, 1,326 and Dr. E. M. Carlson, 1,206. Six candidates competed for the school board posts.

Some 1,000 voters signed the petitions to put the sewer use tax ordinance on the ballots and only 740 voted against it in the entire city. In the Third Ward, voters backed Councilman Leslie Warren who opposed the ordinance, but voted 226 to 178 approval.

Zeig Elected Mayor

YORK, Neb. (AP) — Hubert Zeig was elected mayor of York. He had no opposition. Elected to the school board were incumbent Robert Keese and E. A. Levitt.

Ehrlich Enters Innocent Plea

DENVER (AP)—Aaron Ehrlich, 23, pleaded innocent by reason of insanity to a charge of murder in the death of Paul L. Simmons, 24, of Denver. Simmons deaths was attributed to a blow on the neck.

At his previous arraignment Ehrlich refused to enter the insanity plea and said he wanted a full trial "to prove I had no intention of committing a murder." He was arrested at North Platte in February.

District Judge Edward E. Pringle committed Ehrlich to the Colorado Psychopathic Hospital for the required 30-day examination as to his sanity at the time of the slaying. A finding of insanity at the time of the crime would prevent Ehrlich from ever being tried for the slaying.

Committees Told For GOP Meeting

OMAHA (AP) — Two committees for the Nebraska Young Republican meeting in Omaha April 12-13 were announced. They are:

Resolutions: James Ryan, Lincoln; Rosemary McCain, Gering; Gerald Buechler, Grand Island; Don Monen Jr., Omaha and Tom Spence, Gering.

Constitution: Barbara Krantz, Omaha; Marion Brown, Papillion; Marilyn Legge, Fremont; Jim Ponder Jr., Gering; Dean Wallace and Del Houseman, Lincoln.

Probe Of Truck Boycott Complaint Asked By Curtis

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Curtis (R-Neb) asked the attorney general's office to investigate under the anti-trust act a Nebraska firm's complaint of a trucking boycott.

Curtis, author of a bill to outlaw secondary boycotts, also sent copies of correspondence in connection with the complaint to the Interstate Commerce Commission (ICC).

He said Tire Mileage, Inc., of Norfolk, Neb., wrote that it had ordered 52 boxes of camelback shipped from Ohio to Nebraska last month.

The firm complained, Curtis said, that on March 20 the Cascase Rubber Co. of Cuyahoga Falls, Ohio, replied that it could not get Akron shippers to handle the camelback if it was to be interchanged on a non-union trucking line, Clark Brothers Transfer Co. of Norfolk.

Tire Mileage said it had asked that the Norfolk firm handle the shipment from Omaha to Norfolk.

Curtis earlier had sent Atty. Gen. Brownell similar incidents in Nebraska which he considers in restraint or trade and commerce.

Per Capita Rate At Newark Leads State Heart Fund

OMAHA (AP) — Newark in Kearney County led Nebraska in the per capita rate of giving in the Nebraska heart fund drive with a $2.83 per person average. Newark's population is 28.

State Chairman Robert B. Crosby said the largest city drives included Omaha with $60,725, Lincoln with $20,000, Grand Island $4,989, Scottsbluff $4,024 and Cozad $3,820.

Hastings was seventh with $3,k328; Fremont eighth with $3,149; Beatrice ninth, $2,676; Kearney 10th, $2,474; Norfolk 11th, $2,116; Alliance 14th, $1,614; North Platte 16th, $1,157.

Crosby said the drive has raised $189,000 but final figures won't be available until July 1.

Philip Thrills Teenagers With Illustrated World Tour Recital

By FRED DOERFLINGER

LONDON (INS) — The Duke of Edinburgh went before a teen-aged audience Wednesday and, without really trying, proved himself the new Elizabethan era's best salesman for the life of adventure.

Philip

Shattering all kinds of royal precedents, the queen's husband took 2,000 excited students on a "lantern-slide" journey to the Antarctic, the South Pacific and other far-flung outposts of the British Empire.

At the end of the hour-long illustrated talk there was no doubt in the minds of the boys and girls who the Sir Walter Raleigh of his age is.

The duke was casually dressed in a gray suit, white shirt and red tie. His air was relaxed and he quickly had his festival hall audience laughing at his quips. At the outset, he said he wouldn't tell which of the films and slides he himself took, but that "if you see any bad ones, you'll know."

Using maps to background the colored and black-and-white pictures, Philip talked his way lightheartedly around the world. The students, a majority of whom were girls, greeted each joke with laughter.

Philip's lecture was filled with interesting bits of information. For instance, he said that some people believe the remote Seychelles Islands in the Indian Ocean were the site of the Biblical Garden of Eden and that the cocoanut-like fruit there was the forbidden fruit of Adam and Eve.

"I am not surprised," the Duke said, "because I tasted some. If it was really the forbidden fruit, I think Adam was very ill-advised to taste it."

The duke told the kids about the Pidgin English of New Guinea does not come naturally but has to be learned. In Pidgin, Philip said, he himself is "fella belongs Mrs. Queen."

The duke showed many engaging shots of animals, birds and incidents on his recent four-month world tour.

He was shown playing tennnis in the Antarctic snow and horse-racing in the Falkland Islands. Pointing to his bearded self in one picture, the duke said: "That's one of the sailors."

He showed himself a master of gentle wit. Displaying shots of elephants and seals scratching themselves, he said: "They are a picture of connubial bliss."

The prince was not afraid to show himself in awkward positions. In one shot, he was seen swaying perilously in a basket which transferred him from the royal yacht Britannia to a whaling factory ship.

At the conclusion, Philip said, "That's it," and the students gave him a burst of appreciative applause. It was, in the words of 14-year-old Yvonne Bayntun, "a jolly good show."

Traffic Headache

NEW DELHI (AP) — Tourists are always fascinated by the way bicycles, ox carts, buggies and loaded camels snarl the automobile traffic of the Indian capital. But it's a real headache to the government. It reports 1,129 traffic accidents killed 101 persons in New Delhi last year.

$10,000 Injuries Suit In Cass County Accident

A Kansas City, Mo., man has filed a $10,000 suit in Lancaster District Court for alleged injuries to his nine-year-old daughter resulting from a Cass County highway accident Feb. 26, 1956.

Named as defendants are Tommy E. and Idela Allen of 3310 Y, Lincoln.

Cecil H. Hunter alleges his daughter, Sherry Lee, was thrown against the dash and windshield of his car when it was in collision with the Allen car on U.S. 34.

Native Nebraskan Heads Big Firm

NEW YORK (AP) — Directors of Babcock & Wilcox Co. Wednesday elected M. Nielsen as president. He succeeds Alfred Iddles, who retired after serving as president since 1948.

Nielsen, born in 1904 in Belden, Neb., had been executive vice president for two years. He started as a construction worker for the big heating supply company 33 years ago.
